

TWELVE DEAD, 20 INJURED IN FIRE

VICTIMS ARE TRAPPED IN SLEEP BY FLAMES IN EASTERN TENEMENT

Police Reserves Rushed to Scene Early Friday as Blaze Sweeps Five-Story Structure—Cause of Fire Is Undetermined

New York, April 27.—Twelve persons perished and twenty were injured in a fire which swept through the upper floors of the five-story tenement house at 69 East 109th St., early today.

Most of the victims were women and children. One whole family was annihilated. This was the family of Mr. and Mrs. Kxis, both of whom were killed along with their two children, Bertha, aged 21, and David, aged 19. Mrs. Mandelbam and her six children all met death on the top floor. The young victims were Minnie, 15; Michael, 12; Morris, 10; Benjamin, 8; Alexander, 4, and a baby boy aged 18 months.

An unidentified dead woman was found to be Mrs. Brandstein, a tenant on the third floor.

Most of the victims were trapped in their sleep by the flames which rolled through the building with amazing rapidity. Three alarms were turned in in rapid succession, but before the firemen reached the scene the whole upper part of the structure was a seething mass of flames.

Ambulances were called from Mount Sinai and other hospitals and first aid was given in the street to the most serious of the injured.

Two victims died in Mount Sinai hospital. The bodies of most of the other victims were found on the fourth and fifth floors.

Armed by smoke and the roar of the flames many residents of the tenement made their way through the clouds of stifling black smoke to the fire escapes.

There is a long drop between the lowest step of the escape and the street. As a group of frightened men, women and children huddled on the escape, fearing to leap a taxicab approached. The driver drove upon the sidewalk under the escape and the refugees jumped from the escape to the roof of the taxi, thence to the street.

Edward Bronstein, trapped on the third floor was rescued with great difficulty. He was taken to Mount Sinai Hospital suffering from burns.

Smoke inhalation and shock. He said he did not know if his parents had escaped. In the smoke and confusion he became separated from them. Police reserves were rushed to the scene along with the firemen and they took part in many thrilling rescues.

Despite the early hour, a large crowd soon collected and police lines had to be established to hold back the curious from the danger zone. Hysterical women impeded the work of the surgeons who were administering first aid to the injured. Five of the injured were rushed to St. David's Hospital.

Firemen, immediately upon their arrival, tried to drag lines of hose through the house but found the stairways cut off. This was responsible for the large death toll on the upper floors. The tenants upon the fourth and fifth floors found their escape by the stairway cut off when they were aroused from sleep.

Billowing clouds of flames, sparks and smoke pouring from the roof and windows aroused the neighborhood and the residents of nearby tenements fled in terror fearing the fire would spread.

One of the persons rescued by the firemen and police was a 75 year old woman. She was paralyzed and helpless.

A policeman heard her calling feebly from her bed. He made his way through the smoke, picked her up and carried her out. Aside from fright she was not hurt.

The cause of the fire was not determined.

The tenement housed 20 families or about 120 persons in all. As the blaze apparently originated at the stairway a theory was advanced that it may have been incendiary in origin.

Michael Kaufmann, an employee of the Hall of Records, discovered the fire. He had worked late and had just reached his home at 68 East 109th St., when he saw a flash of light in the windows of two upper floors of the tenement at number 69. A second later flames leaped simultaneously from windows on the two top floors. Kaufmann rushed to the nearest telephone, turned in an alarm and then ran to the burning tenement house to give aid.

Search Along African Coast Fruitless Vessels Report

London, April 27.—Three lifeboats filled with passengers from the abandoned Portuguese steamship Mossamedes have reached Port Alexander, on the African coast said a Central News dispatch from Capetown this afternoon. Hope is now entertained that all the missing 237 passengers and seamen will be saved.

Capetown, April 27.—Lifeboats, containing 237 passengers and seamen from the abandoned Portuguese steamship Mossamedes were still missing today despite search of the African coast by numerous vessels.

The steamship Munana, has been scouring the coast line in all directions from Cape Frio, where the Mossamedes went aground in a gale on Wednesday.

The South African government is considering sending an expedition to search uninhabited, isolated regions in the possibility that the small boats containing the fugitives put ashore in one of these districts, where there is no telegraphic communication with the outside world.

Search had been stimulated by the fact that there are 29 women and 25 children among the missing passengers.

"When I was in France," he told Judge Charles W. Hoffman, "I denied myself every luxury. I even denied myself food in order that I might send presents and keepsakes to my wife. When I returned, one of the first questions she asked me was: 'Why did you send me all that junk?'"

CLARA PHILLIPS' SISTER BELIEVED HELD IN SOUTH

Mrs. Etta May Jackson Mistaken for "Tiger Woman" is Theory

TELEGRAMS RECEIVED

Authorities Think Person They are Detaining is Not Murderess

Los Angeles, Calif., April 27.—Mrs. Etta May Jackson, the "baby sister" of Clara Phillips, "hammer murderess" is believed to be the woman held at Tegucigalpa, Honduras, with Jesse Carson and with a woman believed to be Mrs. Phillips. This was learned today in establishing the almost positive identity of Mrs. Phillips, after authorities had been shown an exclusive and copyrighted International News Service dispatch from Tegucigalpa.

The authorities here based their belief on the fact that among the telegrams and letters taken from the woman thought to be Mrs. Phillips, Honduran authorities found one addressed to "Jackson" at Tampico and signed "Mrs. R. M. Young," the name of the woman thought to be the "tiger woman."

The message asked Jackson when he was coming. The reply to this message, signed "Ben Norton," said he was coming as well as sending "Jack" and to wait his letter. The name "Ben Norton" is believed to be the way Jackson signed the message to hide his identity.

Mrs. Jackson, before her marriage to R. S. Jackson was Etta May Weaver. Her husband is known to be an oil man and rancher near Tampico and it was believed by officers here in view of the telegram found in "Mrs. Young's" possession that "Jackson" is Mrs. Phillips' brother-in-law and has been in constant communication with her and supplying her with money.

PRISONER FATALLY SHOT IN ATTEMPT TO MAKE GETAWAY

Three Effect Temporary Escape From Ohio State Penitentiary

Columbus, O., April 27.—Shot near the heart, Frank Rybicki, 26, Cuyahoga county penitentiary prisoner is believed dying. He was fired upon by penitentiary officials early this morning when he failed to comply with a command to halt after escaping from the big state prison with Raymond Nowak, 21, and Walter Niegoda, 22, Lucas County prisoners.

The three prisoners jammed a window in the dormitory at the prison brick plant, where they had sleeping quarters. The escape was made while the guard was being changed in the prison tower at 2 a. m. Leaping from the window, the prisoners disappeared in the darkness. They were caught about eight miles from the penitentiary three hours later. Rybicki, when ordered to halt, attempted to run and was shot through the back by one of the guards. The other two men surrendered immediately.

HARDING VICTORY IN WORLD COURT BATTLE VIRTUALLY ASSURED

Developments in Last 48 Hours Tend Toward Belief That Threatened Split Dwindles Down to Mere Handful of Opposition.

Washington, April 27.—On the basis of events during the past forty-eight hours, President Harding came to the conclusion today that the threatened split in the Republican party over his world court proposal had dwindled down to the opposition of a handful of "irreconcilables" and that success for the administration's program was virtually assured.

The dove of peace is fluttering around between the capital and the White House with Senators Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts and James E. Watson of Indiana—arch opponents of the League of Nations, and still wary of the court plan—still seeking a compromise by which the President can win the support of the rank and file of his party for his plan to make the United States a member of the international tribunal set up by the League.

Senator Borah, of Idaho, leader of the Republican "irreconcilables," was out with a formal statement today, lambasting the Harding proposal as a definite step toward actual participation in the councils of the League of Nations but there is a distinct current of compromise with a strong probability that alarming differences within the party are going to be adjusted.

This trend toward a compromise had become so marked today that friends of the court proposal, after "counting noses" thought the actual voting opposition in the Senate would be limited to Borah of Idaho, La Follette of Wisconsin, Johnson of California, Moses of New Hampshire, Brandegee of Connecticut, Shipstead of Minnesota, Frazier of North Dakota; Norris of Nebraska, Howell of Montana and Brookhart of Iowa. Leaders like Smoot of Utah, Wadsworth of New York and Curtis of Kansas, the Republican "whip" might vote against the acceptance of the Harding court plan, but they are expected to be won.

LEGISLATURE IN SESSION AGAIN ACTS ON VETOES

Bombarded With Requests To Make Up Appropriation Slashes

UNIVERSITIES SUFFER

Governor Fails to Approve Building Budget of State University

Columbus, O., April 27.—Despite conferences of Senate and House leaders, and numerous group meetings of senators and representatives here this morning, a definite plan of action by the Republican majority relative to the question of passing bills over Governor Donahy's veto had not been decided upon at noon.

A strong sentiment developed in House in favor of passing no measures at all over the governor's veto but to leave things as they are until next January.

Senate leaders announced that no local measures will be considered at this time, although there "quite possibly" will be action on some of the "program" bills favored by the majority, primarily the Taft tax bill.

Columbus, O., April 27.—Recommendations to the members of the State Legislature that they provide for a commission to make an exhaustive study of the general question of municipal courts, Governor Donahy today declared that "no additional courts of this kind will be established with my approval until this has been adopted a uniform state code governing all."

The governor asserted that he would approve no further tinkering with details of existing municipal court laws until such uniformity is brought about. "We have in the state at the present time, some 17 municipal courts in as many cities, each having from one to ten judges."

Columbus, O., April 27.—The State Legislature, which reconvenes here this afternoon after a three weeks recess, is expected to be bombarded with requests to make up the $4,003,300 slashed from the general appropriation bill by Governor Donahy.

The largest single cut included the entire building budget of $1,728,000 for the Ohio State University which the governor disapproved because, instead of being specifically itemized as required by law, it was "lumped together."

"I refuse to be a party to such concealment of plans from the public when millions are involved, and, therefore, disapprove the entire amount," said the governor. "I am sorry that our largest education institution—the pride of the state—may become the innocent sufferer, but I cannot do otherwise and maintain my self respect."

The governor vetoed the specific appropriation of $238,000 for an addition to the archaeological building at Ohio State also. All salary increases for the presidents of the state educational institutions were disapproved. As the governor cannot veto parts of items, he struck out the entire appropriation for salaries for the presidents of Kent and Bowling Green Normal Schools and Miami and Ohio Universities and will recommend that the emergency board transfer bonds to take care of the salaries.

The governor also vetoed building appropriations of $305,000 at Miami, $400,000 at Ohio University, Athens, $175,000 at Kent Normal and $275,000 at Bowling Green Normal.

Appropriations for armories at Canton, London, Ohio City, Dresden and Winchester, varying from $30,000 to $85,000 were vetoed because the governor said the adjutant general advised that these were not as necessary as armories for some other cities.

In the sundry claims bill, an item of $64,570.71 representing the claims of three coal companies for coal furnished state institutions during the administration of former Governor Davis, was vetoed, because of alleged illegality of the contracts. The governor recommended that the claims be adjudicated in court.

An appropriation of $25,000 for paving the road from Hebron to Buckeye Lake, Licking County, favored by Columbus and Newark business men, was cut out by the governor because, he said, the money "could not be expended by any official department of the state government."

A $200,000 appropriation for a new state institution for the feeble minded was vetoed, the governor explaining that he favored further development of the plant at Orient.

Among the bills permitted by the governor to become law by lapse of time are the Freeman-Collister Motor Bus regulation measure; the Hart bill providing for construction of a $1,000,000 state office building; the Atwood sewer rental bill and the Knapp bill legalizing the use of branch registrars of motor vehicles under the Secretary of State.

BORAH ATTACKS HARDING PLAN OF A WORLD COURT

Washington, April 27.—Senator William E. Borah, irreconcilable leader in the famous league of nations battle, plunged into the fight against the administration's world court plan with a formal statement denouncing the proposal as a step towards the league.

In a forceful analysis of what the president's recommendation means, as he sees it, Senator Borah aims to show how entry to the court, the child of the league of nations, inevitably would take the United States into the league itself.

"The proposition advanced by Mr. Harding that this country can go into the league court and still continue to be against the league," the senator said, "is impossible. It would never be suggested if political expediency did not seem to require it," Borah added. The senator declared that the league of nations created the court, it elects the judges, sustains the tribunal and maintains its power. "When the league fails," he said, "the court fails. Therefore, if the court is to be maintained, the league has got to be preserved. Once the United States becomes obligated to uphold the court, it can not avoid its obligation to uphold the agency responsible for the court, the league itself."

Senator Borah charged that both Hughes and Hoover, the president's chief advisers on the court issue, are "under written pledges to exert their powers to take us into the league." He added: "The Republican party, in asserting that it can go into the court and stay out of the league, is taking a position which will bring down upon it the moral condemnation of everyone." The senator continued:

League Sustains Court.
"It is conceded that the sole source of existence and the sole power of maintenance of this particular court is the league of nations. It created the court, it elects the judges, it fills the vacancies. It pays the expenses of the court. It maintains and preserves the court. When the league falls, the court falls. When the league breaks down the court disappears. If the court is to be preserved, we must first preserve the league."

"How can we be indifferent or disregardful of the very foundation upon which the court rests and without which it must perish? Will it not inevitably become our duty, after we have entered the court, to do all in our power to preserve the league in order that we may preserve the court?"

"There is a great campaign being organized now to take us into the league in order that the league may be preserved. Suppose it becomes perfectly apparent to all, as it now is to so many, that without the United States going into the league the league must fail. Would those people who are now advocating this court under such circumstances continue to oppose the league and let the court perish? They would know that the moment the league broke down their court must go. What kind of a position of stultification would a man be in who, under such circumstances, would stand up and argue that this court is a great thing, that we ought to preserve it, but we must destroy the foundation upon which it rests?"

MISSIONARY SOCIETY ENJOYS BIRTHDAY PARTY

The members of the Women's Missionary Society of the First Reformed Church were delightfully entertained at a birthday party at the home of Mrs. J. A. Yoder on North Galloway Street Thursday afternoon. Jonquills and hyacinths formed fragrant decorations about the rooms.

The special feature of the afternoon program was the opening of the box containing the birthday offerings. Following that interesting feature, reports of the recent meeting of the Miami Classes at Greenville were given by Mrs. George Page and Mrs. Joseph Kennedy, delegates from the local society. Mrs. Edwin Buck favored the society with three beautiful vocal solos.

The society voted unanimously to set aside a sum of money for purchasing a bronze tablet which will be placed near the door of the Sunday School primary room as a tribute of appreciation of the life and work of Miss Annie Schmidt who was untiring in her devotion to the work of the primary department.

Following the program the hostesses served delicious refreshments, a feature of which was a large birthday cake bearing lighted candles. Twenty-five of the Society members were present and enjoyed the occasion.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED AT EVENING PARTY

Fifty guests were received by Miss Ryan for cards, which furnished the principal amusement of the evening. The score prizes were won by Miss Margaret Whalen, and Mr. William Leahy. Miss Leahy was presented a guest prize of a half-dozen goblets.

During the evening, little Miss Anna Louise Horney, entered the guest circle dressed in pink and white tulle, and presented a telegram, announcing Miss Leahy's and Mr. Walsh's engagement.

A two-course luncheon was served by Miss Ryan, a color scheme of pink and white being carried out in the appointments. A bride's table was prettily arranged for a group of guests. A lighted pink candle being placed at each cover, with a bowl of pink and white carnations as a centerpiece. Music entertained the guests during the remainder of the evening.

SAY PLAYGROUNDS REDUCE NUMBER OF DELINQUENCY CASES

That municipal playgrounds such as planned for Xenia, are effective in reducing child delinquency all over the country, is the assertion of experts of the Playground and Recreation Association of America, which offers service to play ground ventures and which is assisting in the promotion of Xenia's proposed recreational program.

The assertion is based on returns from a national questionnaire, in which inquiries were sent to over 2,400 cities in the United States and Canada. Replies were received from 1,053 although many of those that failed to respond are known to be carrying on public recreation in some form.

A decrease of 75 per cent in the number of juvenile court cases was reported in a single district in St. Louis after the establishment of a playground. According to the manager of the Edison Light Company of Duluth, breakages of street electric lights on Halloween dropped 37 per cent as compared with the year before because of the municipal Halloween program. In St. Paul playground directors saved 75 boys from going to the reformatory and from repeating their offenses, it is said, and the decrease in delinquency reported in Yakima, Washington, was 50 per cent.

As a result of a Passaic, New Jersey recreational hall where 68 basketball teams have their games, the judge of the juvenile court is seriously considering closing up shop, it is said by the Association officials. The national inquiry showed that 505 cities, maintained 4,601 play centers in 1922, and the total number of workers employed was 10,867. Of these 2,026 were employed throughout the year, an increase of 478 or 30 per cent over the year-round workers in 1921. Chicago spent over $1,500,000 for municipal recreation last year, the report showed while New York appropriated $489,000 and Philadelphia more than $311,000.

The Association itself answered 14,000 requests for help by correspondence and consultation at its New York headquarters, it is said. The Recreation Congress at Atlantic City last October was attended by 567 delegates from 207 cities in the United States and from two foreign countries. Ten state campaigns for compulsory physical education in the schools were conducted and 168 cities were served by field secretaries.

ENTERS BUSINESS IN WILMINGTON

William R. Collins, of near Jamestown, former principal of the Ross Township High School, will enter the insurance business with headquarters in Wilmington, after the close of the present school year, he has announced.

Mr. Collins is now superintendent of the West Liberty public schools, but has refused to sign a contract to return there next year. Instead he has accepted the agency of the New York Mutual Life Insurance Company in Fayette, Clinton and Warren Counties, with headquarters in Wilmington, and will enter upon his new duties at the conclusion of the school year.

Mattie T. Wood

Mattie T. Wood Conner, daughter of John and Sarah Wood, was born in Clinton County, Ohio, March 12, 1865, and died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. C. Merrett, April 23, 1923, aged 58 years, 1 month and 11 days.

She is survived by one brother, Edward Wood, who lives in the West. When a young lady, she came into the White Oak neighborhood and engaged in teaching school. Here she met Mills Conner and later became his wife. Two daughters, Inez and Mary, were born to them, becoming their constant companions and great, earthly comfort through life.

Sister Conner united with the White Oak M. P. Church, to which congregation her husband had belonged since childhood, later, when this congregation disbanded, she and her husband united with the Jamestown M. E. Church to which she belonged at death.

For the past several months she had suffered from paralysis which rendered her dependant upon the kind ministrations of her daughter. It can be truthfully said of this daughter and her husband, that they did to the utmost all that they could do for her comfort. No more enduring crown can be placed on the brow of a son or daughter than the faithful discharge of those duties which spring from filial affection.

Wedded as we are to the things of sight and sense, we have not the power to see clearly beyond the veil that hides those that have gone before, but Christian faith coming to our aid as a much needed friend, aids our fears depart, soothes our pain and in a soft sweet voice tells us that we have lost them for only a little while, and we will find them in the morning.

Give me, Oh Father, to Thy throne access, Unshaken seat of endless happiness, Give me, unvelled, the source of good to see, Give me Thy light and fix mine eyes on Thee.

LOCAL TEACHER TO GIVE UP POSITION

A long connection as a teacher in the Xenia City Schools was severed Thursday when Miss Mary Gretsinger, teacher at the Spring Hill School, handed her resignation to Superintendent of Schools C. A. Waltz, Thursday.

Miss Gretsinger is planning to leave May 14 for an extended trip to California, and will probably spend about a year in that state. Miss Margaret Clark, former teacher at Spring Hill, has been temporarily appointed to Miss Gretsinger's place pending a regular appointment.

Miss Gretsinger began her connection with the Xenia City School 28 years ago, when she was added to the staff of teachers at the old West building, abandoned many years ago. After teaching there six years, she was transferred to the Spring Hill building, which has been the home of her teaching career for 22 years.

At the Spring Hill building, Miss Gretsinger taught different classes during different years of her work there, having at different times had charge of all grades with the exception of the first and second. When the teaching work all over the city was departmentalized, Miss Gretsinger was placed in charge of mathematics and music in the fourth, fifth and sixth grades, with which she was occupied until her retirement Thursday. As Miss Clark is on the teachers' retirement list, her appointment is only temporary and she will be relieved as soon as a regular appointment can be made.

IRISH WAR TO END

Styles BY LENORE

This is one of the things an original frock will do. To an altogether exceedingly simple foundation, it will add a deep pouch pocket of pleasant shape, and presto! in the company of one hundred frocks there will be none other with just that note of individuality.

Navy twill or kasha cloth may be used to make such a frock, and if intended for office wear, the sleeves may be lengthened—preferably to the wrist, in keeping with the fashion. The stitching around the neck and on the bodice, the buttons and the button holes, are in rust color and the pouch is embroidered in the same color. There are very narrow pleated panels inset at the sides of the skirt.

THE CHEERFUL CHERUB

Now realism is the style. And drab and dreary all things look—Well, I don't like it much in life. But I can stand it in a book.

ENVIALE RECORD MADE IN RADIO

McCormick of this city, who has been attending the American Radio School in New York City for the last year, finished his course there a few days ago graduating with the highest grade ever made by a pupil in the school; his grade being within five tenths of perfect.

The day following the completion of his course the young man received his government license and was sent to Norfolk, Va., where he took up his duties as wireless operator on the S. S. Hamilton out of Norfolk on a short cruise.

He expects to go to New York with in a few days where he will be placed on a vessel for a long cruise.

ASKED TO LOCATE ALLEGED SWINDLER

Police are searching for a man who gave him name as the Rev. C. Mohammed, believed to be a Greek, Armenian or Arabian, and posing as a preacher, who swindled C. E. Arbogast of this city, out of the price of a railway ticket to Pittsburgh, with a fake robbery story Thursday.

Mohammed said he had been robbed of his pocketbook, containing all of his money, while on a train coming to this city from Cincinnati where, he alleged he had been preaching. He said he spoke here at the First Baptist Church four years ago and remembering Mr. Arbogast, looked him up for financial assistance in order to continue his way to Pittsburgh.

Mr. Arbogast gave the man a check for $8.36 made payable to L. F. Emery, Pennsylvania Railroad ticket agent for a ticket to Pittsburgh, but later saw him walking west on Main Street. When he accosted the man, the latter said he returned uptown for his grip and then had become lost. Mr. Arbogast again showed him the way to the depot, but when it was learned later that he had obtained the ticket but had not boarded the train, the case was reported to police.

Several other Xenia men were swindled by a person believed to be the same man several years ago, it is said. Police believe the man is an Armenian peddler living in Dayton, and Dayton police have been furnished with a description of him.

CASTING OIL ON TROUBLED WATERS—ENTWINING U. S. AND TURK FLAGS.

We seem to have come to the time when "oil" has become a wonderful factor in world affairs. It is not only a source of great wealth in our country but in other countries as well. And not only this, but it appears also in the shape of a "bugbear" in the pathway of peace between nations. As such, it has been the main factor in defeating friendly relations between the United States and Mexico for years. Some of our citizens had pre-empted oil claims down there from which trouble arose, which we are now trying to adjust.

And now comes "oil" as a feature which the nations are having to cast upon the troubled waters of affairs, in their attempt to adjust matters with the Turks at Lausanne.

It seems that an American syndicate headed by retired Rear Admiral Colby Chester has secured from the Turkish government a concession in the way of oil grants, now alluded to in all the papers as "the Chester concession," which is creating quite a stir. The intimation is that this concession has been secured by under-handed means and that England, France and other nations are looking upon it with suspicion as a "grab game" on the part of the Americans.

The subject has been up at Lausanne in a casual way, but is likely to have further attention. On this occasion it is reported that the Turkish delegation, through its spokesman, declared the Chester concession to be entirely valid, and said that it was granted not because Chester was an American, or Turkey wished to favor the United States, but because Americans know how to do business on a business basis without appealing to their Government for help or seeking to exercise any "economic pressure" against Turkey.

We quote now from the Christian Science Monitor: "Viewed in the light of recent history, that was an amazing—a revolting—spectacle presented at a dinner in a New York hotel, Thursday night, April 19th, when the Stars and Stripes and the Turkish Star and Crescent were wreathed together over the speakers' table, and a retired admiral of the United States Navy vied with a Turkish Bey in eulogizing Turkey, and expressing contempt for Great Britain and for Lord Curzon, who represented that Nation at Lausanne.

Now, in pursuit of what a Turkish spokesman at the dinner of the concessionaires called "the bacon, and pretty fat, juicy bacon at that," the Government of the United States is to be dragged into relations with Turkey, against which the conscience and the intelligence of the American people will revolt. For fat contracts in railroad building and in the development of ports and for a share in the Mosul oil fields, it is urged that the Stars and Stripes and the Star and Crescent be lovingly entwined, and that the United States set itself sharply in antagonism to its former allies, France and Great Britain, who claim prior rights in the same territory. Is it possible that this hunger for fat and juicy bacon, this appetite for oil, is to be permitted to entangle the Government of the United States in the most perilous adventure in dollar diplomacy that history has ever recorded?

What the Turk meant to Christian civilization during the war is well told in former Ambassador Morgenthau's book of reminiscences of his service as United States representative at the Sublime Porte. It meant murder, wholesale assassination, massacre, looting, and rapine. We observe with interest that Ambassador Morgenthau, who saw the Turk near at hand, did not sit under the entwined flags at the dinner of the concessionaires.

If Admiral Chester, who seems to be persona grata to the State Department, will ask the Secretary of State of that official's experience during the period when the Turks were sweeping over Angora with fire and sword, completing there the work of extermination of the Christians which they had so successfully prosecuted in Armenia, he may learn some facts that were not brought out at his promotion dinner. Never was the State Department so overwhelmed with letters of appeal and of protest from the Christian people of the United States, from the churches and the philanthropic societies of the American Republic, as in that moment of Turkish triumph and blood guilt. Never has there been a more united or more widespread appeal for action by the United States to check the Turk in his devastating progress back into the Europe from which it was thought that his exemplary defeat in the World War had expelled him, as then. There was no response from the State Department or from the Administration.

AN OBJECT LESSON IN GREAT BRITAIN.

Is it not rather strange that certain English gentlemen should tour the United States for the purpose of advising or hinting what this country should do in the present world crisis? Is it not peculiar that these gentlemen should tell us of our economic blunders and the perils we are facing, the business depression and unemployment we are inviting by keeping out of European politics and enacting laws to protect America?

Great Britain and her colonies are in the European league of nations. Great Britain boasts that it is a free trade nation. According to the doctrine preached by our distinguished English visitors, Great Britain should be prosperous industrially and economically.

But what do we find in Great Britain? A crisis of no small proportions. There are more than 1,500,000 wage earners out of employment in Great Britain. According to official figures, one man in eight is unemployed in British industry generally. The number has increased during the past year, and the distress caused is cumulative and appalling. The average of the unemployed is about 22 per cent of the total. Just what to do is Great Britain's tragic problem now.

Why do not the English gentlemen touring this country, and telling the United States what must be done by this country to solve its economic problems, kindly return home and help solve their own domestic problems?

If there is any economic virtue in the European league of nations or in the program of free trade, it should manifest itself in Great Britain, a nation that qualifies in both particulars.

By sticking to its own knitting, the United States is getting along very well, thank you. Unemployment is declining rapidly, business is reviving satisfactorily.

Why not tell our lecturing foreigners that the United States intends to set its own house in order first, rendering aid to Europe as far as possible without injury to this country?

IF IT TURNS OUT ANYTHING LIKE BIBLICAL HISTORY SOMEBODY'S GOING TO BE LEFT OUT IN THE WET

1903--Twenty Years Ago--1923

Today, April 27, is the anniversary of the Jamestown cyclone in which five persons met their death and much valuable property was destroyed. It was nineteen years ago since the disaster occurred.

It is understood that Xenia Seminary will soon establish another professor's chair with the share of funds received from the Newburg, N. Y. property. A dancing class has been organized in the city and met for the first time at the K. of P. Hall last evening, about twenty-five couples being in attendance.

The tide of travel through Xenia today is unusually heavy owing to the number of excursions bound for St. Louis to attend the dedicatory services of the World's Fair, tomorrow.

WELL SHAPED HIPS

Any woman who is getting old, any woman who has had a baby, or any woman who has a tendency to be too fat should take particular care that the hips and abdomen do not become too large. This is a part of the body where flesh is most apt to collect. A thick line here will make the whole figure matronly, so that even a young face cannot give the impression of entire youthfulness.

The most usual remedy which a woman adopts is corseting, and the larger she grows the more tightly she laces. Unfortunately, this isn't a cure. The only real cure lies in diet and exercise. The best exercise is to stand with the hands on the hips and to bend forward as far as possible a dozen or more times, always keeping the spine straight. Follow this by bending first to the left, then to the right, a dozen or more times, keeping the body from the waist down as motionless as possible. This can be followed by what is sometimes called a trunk circling exercise, which is a combination of the two above, a swinging round and round of the whole upper half of the body.

This should be done every day. This special form of exercise will also make thin hips well shaped, so is of as much benefit to the thin woman as to the stout one. All exercise is a corrective. Needless to say, this should be done without a corset and without any sort of restrictive clothing.

To achieve the ideal you should keep your figure so slender and well knit that you can dispense with corsets entirely. This exercise will help you to do so. It will also help strengthen the digestion, a thing that

MRS. PAUL CHRISTISON, COLUMBUS, OHIO.

Columbus Woman Tells How Ka-di-ok Relieved Her Ills in Very Short Time.

Ka-di-ok is designed to relieve, stomach, liver and kidney trouble, poor blood, and a run-down, debilitated system. That it fulfills its purpose in the majority of cases is evidenced by the numerous testimonials which are daily received testifying to the way Ka-di-ok has helped them. Among those recently received is the following from Mrs. Paul Christison of 674 Mt. Vernon Avenue, Columbus, who says: "Until recently I suffered constantly from indigestion and stomach trouble. After eating the simplest sort of food or even taking a small drink of water or other liquid I would almost immediately have the most miserable pains in my stomach. I felt continually tired and sore and was very nervous. My complexion was very yellow; like I might have jaundice. I was advised to try Ka-di-ok and started taking a treatment a few weeks ago. The results have been most gratifying; since that time I have increased in weight several pounds and can eat anything with relish and without my stomach being affected in the least. I am now feeling and looking as well as I have been for a long time. I can truthfully say that Ka-di-ok has done me more good than I ever expected and am glad to give this testimonial for the good it may do others."

Ka-di-ok can be obtained at Sayre & Hemphill's Drug Store, Xenia.

Today's Talk

NEVER BE STUMPED!

There is hardly a day but some one of us arrives at some cross street in our lives and wonders which way to turn.

Usually we get very welcome advice at such a time. Advice costs nothing; therefore, it becomes a cheap and convenient thing to give away.

But the main thing is not to be stumped. Keep cool. Think. Then decide—and go ahead. You may have decided wrongly—but it won't be long before you will find that out. The great thing in life is not to hesitate too long over anything.

Edward Bok, in his wonderfully absorbing story of Cydus Curtis, in "The Man from Maine," tells of the time when Mr. Curtis stood to lose $800,000. Had he given up his enterprise of The Saturday Evening Post. But Curtis called in his treasurer and had a talk. Just imagine the state of mind of that treasurer when he was told to spend another $200,000 so that there would be a cool million lost—if necessary! The point was that here was a master fighter who had determined to win. And of course he did.

Never be stumped!

If you seem to have run out of ideas one way, turn around and take up a new line and travel in some other direction. Success does not limit itself by direction.

When I go to my library and pick up a favorite book, I shall be sure to pick up one that was written by someone who refused to be stumped.

Perhaps it will be one by Mark Twain, or Carlyle, or the sick Stevenson. Play with your plans. Keep looking ahead. Try to learn what the other fellow is thinking about. And what ever you do, seek to do it better than it has ever been done before. Take discouragement as a matter of course. But—never be stumped.

SPECIAL DRILL BY D. OF A. TEAM WILL BE GIVEN AT RINK

A new feature will be introduced on the program of the D. of A. and Jr. O. U. A. M. Spring Festival and Mardi Gras at the Rink Friday night, when the Daughters of America Degree Team from Springfield will stage a special drill as an added attraction.

This team has honors in several state and national competitive drills, and has been rehearsing for the special work to be given here. A large delegation is expected to accompany the team from Springfield and there will also be representatives from councils in neighboring cities and towns to witness the degree work.

Thursday night drew the usual large attendance due to the added interest in the Masquerade Dance. Many of the dancers appeared in costume and at the close of the evening, judges chose Miss Emma Free and Mrs. Elizabeth Hardy as the best masked couple and Miss Nora Bobbitt and Miss Inez Acton as the most comically dressed couples. Prizes were awarded the winners.

The vaudeville acts, which are free, are taking well with the nightly audiences and present a great variety of entertainment. The bill includes Herbert Biggers, in a sensational table and chair balancing act; the Aerial Davenport with a thrilling presentation of aerial work; the Aerial Butters, tight wire artists and also feats of strength, contortion and other interesting stunts coupled with plenty of good music.

A special matinee will be given Saturday afternoon at which the children from the Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home and the County Children's Home will be the guests of the sponsoring organization.

SLAYER PAYS FOR CRIME ON FRIDAY

Columbus, April 27.—Convicted of murdering Detective Frank Heuffel of Cincinnati, Noble "Red" Holt, also of Cincinnati, was electrocuted at Ohio penitentiary shortly after 1 o'clock this morning. Holt was sentenced last July and had received two stays of execution.

Holt was calm as he entered the death chamber, and said nothing during his few moments there. But one application of electricity was necessary before he was pronounced dead. All hope for a third stay of execution was abandoned yesterday when the slayer's wife was refused an audience with Governor Donahey.

Mrs. Holt, although she was not admitted to the governor's office, talked with Executive Secretary Russell. Although Russell could hold out no hope for further postponing her husband's death, Mrs. Holt until late last night was confident "something would turn up" to save him.

In the death cell last night Holt, who was calm and composed, talked freely of his approaching death.

"If I have to die, I'll go with a clear conscience," he said.

Even heavy drinkers of bootleg whiskey are out of luck. Though their liquid preferences make life insurance more desirable for their heirs insurance companies are not anxious for their business.

All leaped from the car except Herbert, too young to realize the impending danger. Glancing back, Hazel saw her brother still in the car. She ran to the machine, grabbed Herbert and threw him to safety just as the train struck the automobile, killing her instantly.

INTERNATIONAL SPRINTS ON

Philadelphia, Pa., April 27.—The most question of whether the shank of an Englishman can outstep that of a Yankee will be determined this afternoon. The occasion will be the annual relay games of the University of Pennsylvania on Franklin Field, where the two mile international run and the sprint medley relay representing Oxford University, England, versus the field of American colleges will come down to a definite decision just as it did in 1914 and again in 1920.

In those years it was a British chest that broke the tape, but according to the best local minds, this cannot happen again. The good word is that Oxford will be lucky to finish third among Syracuse, Georgetown, Kansas, Ohio State, Pennsylvania and others in the sprint medley and that it is believed Morgan, the Oxford tancer, hasn't the chance of a steam roller in the two mile run. Morgan, they say, is a perfectly good cross country man but lacks the speed to stop two miles with Walter Higgins, of Columbia; Helm, of Georgetown; McLane, of Pennsylvania; Bonnell of Cornell; Douglass of Yale and Booth of Johns Hopkins.

Oxford, of course, will be dangerous in the sprint medley. Any team that can muster a man like Bill Stevens, ex Princetonian, to run a 1.4 in 49 seconds or less and Milligan to skip over the half mile distance as fast as 1:56 is bound to command respect, even though Renwick and Miller.

In those years it was a British chest that broke the tape, but according to the best local minds, this cannot happen again. The good word is that Oxford will be lucky to finish third among Syracuse, Georgetown, Kansas, Ohio State, Pennsylvania and others in the sprint medley and that it is believed Morgan, the Oxford tancer, hasn't the chance of a steam roller in the two mile run. Morgan, they say, is a perfectly good cross country man but lacks the speed to stop two miles with Walter Higgins, of Columbia; Helm, of Georgetown; McLane, of Pennsylvania; Bonnell of Cornell; Douglass of Yale and Booth of Johns Hopkins.

Oxford, of course, will be dangerous in the sprint medley. Any team that can muster a man like Bill Stevens, ex Princetonian, to run a 1.4 in 49 seconds or less and Milligan to skip over the half mile distance as fast as 1:56 is bound to command respect, even though Renwick and Miller.

Philadelphia, Pa., April 27.—The most question of whether the shank of an Englishman can outstep that of a Yankee will be determined this afternoon. The occasion will be the annual relay games of the University of Pennsylvania on Franklin Field, where the two mile international run and the sprint medley relay representing Oxford University, England, versus the field of American colleges will come down to a definite decision just as it did in 1914 and again in 1920.

HARDING VICTORY IN COURT BATTLE BELIEVED ASSURED

over to the administration by the firm attitude taken by the President in his New York speech.

Senator Watson, Republican, Indiana, who conferred with Mr. Harding at the White House before leaving the capital for Pittsburgh, and Indianapolis said before his departure:

"The Republican senators who are opposed to dabbling in the League of Nations and who are loyal to the President are seeking some means of compromising their differences with the President in the world court. We are working on a compromise now and I am very hopeful. I am too good a Republican not to compromise to save our party from the danger of a division."

The compromise between Republican leaders and the President will be effected by reservations to the court proposal as originally made to Mr. Harding by Secretary Hughes and transmitted to the Senate by him.

Three methods of compromise were being considered today. They are:

Boils Quit Quick!

S. S. S. Will Prove to You in Your Own Case the "How" and "Why" of its Remarkable Blood-Cleansing Power

There is a reason for everything that happens. Common-sense kills misery. Common-sense also stops boils! S. S. S. is the common-sense remedy for boils, b.

Pimples May Be Small Boils cause it is built on reason. Scientific authorities admit its power! S. S. S. builds blood-power, it builds red-blood-cells. That is what makes fighting-blood. Fighting-blood destroys impurities. It fights boils. It always wins! It fights pimples! It fights skin eruptions! It builds nerve-power, thinking power, the tight-fisted power that whips a man up into success. It gives women the health, the angelic complexion and the charm that moves the world! These are the reasons that have made S. S. S. today the great blood-cleanser, body-builder, success builder, and it's why results have made tears of joy flow from the souls of thousands! Mr. V. D. Schaff, 537 15th St., Washington, D. C., writes:

"I tried for years to get relief from a bad case of boils. Everything failed until I took S. S. S. I am now absolutely cured, and it was S. S. S. that did it."

Try it yourself. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores in two sizes. The larger size bottle is the more economical.

1—To eliminate Great Britain's six votes in the election of The Hague judges; this to be accomplished by agreement with the British government for it not to utilize six votes when the personnel of the court is selected. (This would require no change in the constitution of the league of nations, but in effect would result in a situation similar to that prevailing at the Washington armament conference when each British dominion was represented at the council table but only one vote was cast for the entire empire.)

2—To divorce the international peace court from league of nations

with a new method of electing members. This compromise would necessitate action by each of the thirty four members of the league and would be difficult of accomplishment, though advocates of the plan say it could be accomplished quickly once Great Britain approved. If opposition to the Harding proposal continues, this may be the only method acceptable to the Senate. To take the court entirely away from control of the league of nations would be acceptable to Senator Borah.

3—The election of judges by the United States without participation in the councils at Geneva. This reservation in all probability will be adopted.

POPULAR FICTION ADDED TO SHELVES OF COUNTY LIBRARY

Movie fans were elated when they read advance notices that Richard Barthelmess, was to play the hero in "The Bright Shawl" his latest picture, and are receiving recompense for their elation through the films on Ohio screens during the past few weeks.

Those who did not take the opportunity to read Joseph Hergesheimer's quaint tale in a popular magazine, may do so through the medium of the shelves of the Greene County Library now, since the book is one of the many good ones offered in this month's list.

The sins of 1923, and the follies of society have become hackneyed material for writers, but this delicate subject has been handled in a masterful way by Arthur Train in "His Children's Children," another story that has found its way into book form and into the local library, after a popular series of months in the Cosmopolitan.

A guide to the best in the latest of current fiction, the following list of books just received at the County Library is given:

"Support," Ashmun; "Girl Next Door," Dodd; "His Children's Children," Train; "Bright Shawl," Hergesheimer; "Valley of Ten Thousand Smokes," Griggs; "Radio Boys with the Forest Rangers," Chapman; "Seven Ages of Woman," Mackenzie; "Trodden Gold," O'Brien; "Story of the Bible," Hurlbut; "Patty-Bride," Wells; "Life of Christ," Papine; "Gospel and the Plow," Higginbottom; "Being Respectable," Flandrau; "Room with a View," Foster; "Daughter of Adam," Harris; "Merry O," Hueston; "E. K. Means," Means; "More E. K. Means," Means; "Pest," Terhune; "Vision of Desire," Pedler; "Family," Williams; "O. Henry Memorial Price Stories for 1922," Williams; "Third Book of Short Plays," MacMillan; "Development of the American Short Story," Pattee; "Place of Books in the Life We Live," Stidger; "On," Belloc; "Crystal Age," Hudson; "From Tangle to Tripoli," Carpenter; "Man from Maine," Bok; "William Dean Howells," Cooke; "Speckled Bird," Cutler; "Ralph on the Army Trail," Chapman; "Tom Slade with the Flying Corps," Fitzhugh; "Dick Hamilton's Football Team," Garis; "Boy Scouts on a Motor Boat," Ralphson; "Boy Scouts of the Air in Northern Wilds," Stuart; "Beautiful Bible Stories," Hurlbut; "Advance of the American Short Story," O'Brien.

CELEBRATES HER 78TH BIRTHDAY; IN GOOD HEALTH

Mrs. W. H. Carle of the Wilmington pike, celebrated her seventy-eighth birthday Sunday April 22, the occasion being observed by a family dinner arranged by a company of Mrs. Carle's children at her home.

Those present at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Carle, Mr. and Mrs. Will Ary, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Carle, Xenia, and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Mussetter, of Caesar Creek. Two other children of Mr. and Mrs. Carle, Mr. Otis Carle of Springfield, and Mr. H. E. Carle, of Wilmington, were not present at the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Carle continue to enjoy good health, Mrs. Carle being able to do all her farm and household work, and is interested in current events. She reads many books and the daily newspapers.

The couple have lived on the Wilmington pike for twenty years.

CAESARCREEK

The annual Junior-Senior reception of Caesar Creek High School, was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. McKay on Wilmington pike, Friday evening April 20.

The beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. McKay was thrown open to the entertainment of the large group of pupils of both classes and their friends, the evening opening with a banquet.

Covers for members of the Senior class and their friends were laid at a long table, while the remainder of the guests were served at small tables, arranged throughout the rooms.

Lighted tapers in crystal holders were placed on each table, the appointments being carried out in the Senior colors of silver and rose. The decorations of the rooms were in the same shades. A four course dinner was served the guests, the courses being interspersed with toasts and music. Games and an informal social time were enjoyed following the banquet.

WOMEN ARE WEARY OF WAR AND WILL FIGHT AGAINST IT

Atlanta, Ga., April 27.—If men are not allowed to fight out their differences in the fistfight altercation or with guns, why should nations be? If courts are ready to restrain the conduct of the various commonwealths, why not of the various countries?

These questions and others kindred will be asked by Mrs. Horace Mann Towner of Iowa and Washington, D. C., chairman of the newly created department of international relations in the General Federation of Women's Clubs, at the biennial council to be held at Atlanta, Georgia, May 7-11, and 2,000,000 women who compose the organization are expected to have something to do with the answering.

Women are weary of war. The world is weary of war. And yet nobody does anything about it. The thing to do, in the opinion of the General Federation of Women's Clubs which has members in 18 foreign countries, as well as in every State in the Union, is to establish a world court.

The way to do this, the Federation believes, is to "so aid in forming an enlightened public opinion that the people of every country will demand that a reign of law shall be established among nations as it has been among men."

"There is no reason why the disputes or nations cannot be settled by impartial tribunals as the disputes of men are settled by courts of law," says Mrs. Towner who is the wife of former Congressman Towner, of Iowa, and now Governor of Porto Rico.

"In encouraging the study of world conditions the International Relations Department of the General Federation is urging club women to inform themselves as to the history and status of international relations and of the world conditions which have followed the war.

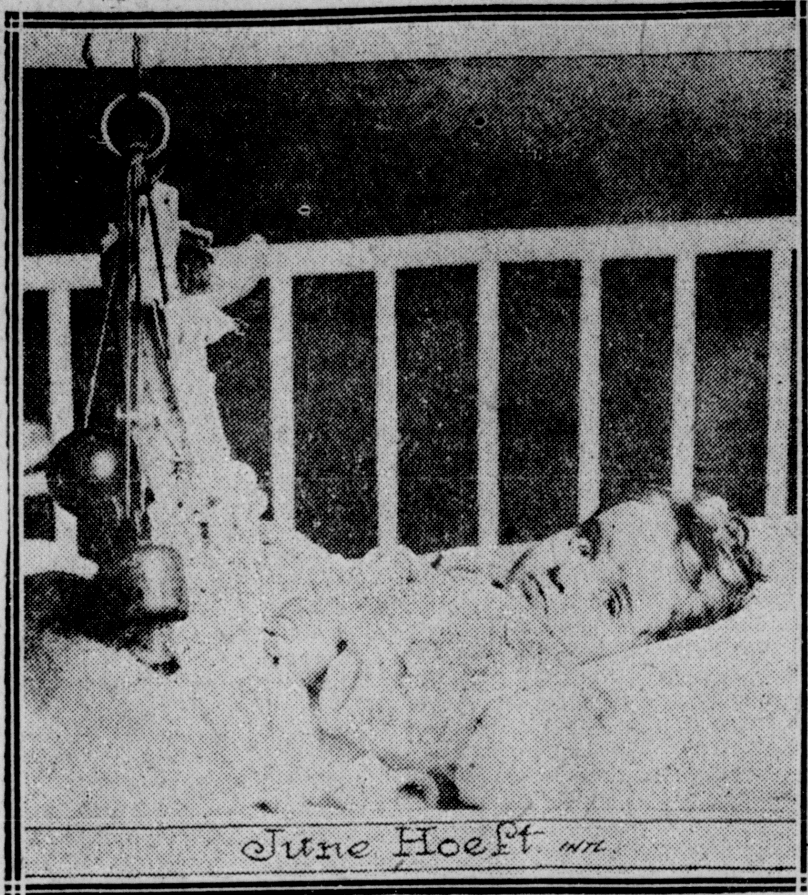

Women must know world conditions in order to interpret correctly those near home. The more accurate their understanding of international matters the more intelligently will they stand back of diplomatic decisions and help crystallize public sentiment.

"The General Federation is now prepared to furnish study programs and references lists and hopes soon to send out from Washington headquarters a traveling library on foreign relations.

Already more than 200 clubs are making international relations a study.

"After informing ourselves and working to influence public opinion we will strive to promote better understanding and establish friendly relations between the women of different countries, in 18 of which we now have club members."

WANTED

Two or three more men to help underwight (purchase for partial re-selling) the stock of the proposed Rotopress Company, of Xenia, Ohio. Immediate action necessary if we are to have any part in manufacturing one of the greatest printing presses ever built. This week—today and tomorrow, only, are left. We have not completed the necessary subscriptions to hold the business here, and as a last resort we take this method of getting into touch with YOU. If we fail, we are convinced that we shall have lost an enterprise which some day will be rated in the millions.

WE HAVE RAISED OVER $65,000. WE NEED NEARLY $35,000 MORE.

WHAT IS THE ROTOPRESS?

The Rotopress has revolutionized printing as surely as the internal combustion engine has revolutionized transportation.

The Rotopress prints 20,000 impressions per hour (25,000 maximum) instead of 1,200 to 3,500.

It prints six colors at one operation—instead of one.

It prints from the paper roll—instead of one sheet at a time.

It is rotary—not reciprocal—in operation, therefore it is comparatively noiseless, vibrationless, and long lived.

It prints a better quality job.

It prints colors to a hair-line register on every one of millions of copies. Never a miss. Never a "white edge." It is the only perfect press of the kind, within our knowledge, in the world.

Colors never smear. Clean cut—beautifully sharp.

Sheets cut and delivered in a stack to perfect size.

No "slip-sheeting" necessary to dry. Colors are dry when they leave the press. Can be packed immediately.

(Note to any printer: If you think these things are impossible, come and see it done. EVERY printer who has seen it has been convinced.)

These are facts already demonstrated. The machine is fully developed. The first finished press is now installed in the Drury printing plant (The Rotograph Printing Co.) at Dayton. The only trouble experienced by this company has been to find work enough to keep the press busy. In three hours it does the work formerly requiring two to three days, for, remember, this production is not alone due to the speed of the machine itself, but also to the fact that no make-ready is required, and no time (10 to 24 hours at a time) for drying colors between runs, as is necessary for color work now.

WHY COME TO XENA?

For the first time in its history Xenia has a chance to get control of an industry which is not highly competitive, is thoroughly protected by patents—a monopoly, in fact—that is immensely profitable, that is developed to the point of production—patterns made, engineering work finished, the first press actually operating. There is absolutely no reasonable question that can not be answered satisfactorily—how the situation arose which caused the management to wish to move East, how we were able to interest the General Manager in Xenia, just what advantages Xenia has to offer in this particular instance that he has not found, or attempted to find, elsewhere.

The General Manager, Mr. E. E. Strawn, is committed to his company's plan to close with another proposition which does not appeal to him as the best possible plan for the development of the manufacturing end of the business, unless we succeed with the proposition made to him by Xenia men. Thus, a difference of business judgment has arisen. Xenia offers Mr.

Strawn and the progressive element of the old company the best way out of the problem. He can put it across if we put our end across. It creates a special opportunity for us that does not often offer itself. We have something he wants, namely a plant exactly suited to his needs, at a very low price, in a quiet community, in the center (of volume) of the printing industry. But the home situation makes it necessary for us to do something at once, if he is to be able to carry through this plan which means to much to us and to him.

CAPITALIZATION

Total, $500,000 authorized, of which $410,000 is common and $90,000 preferred, distributed as follows:

$90,000 preferred and $100,000 common to be paid for the assets of the Iowa company, inventorying more than dollar for dollar, includes all patents, patterns, machinery, contracts, and other assets.

$15,000 common stock to be paid to The Miami Cereal Co. for its plant—easily having a replacement value of $75,000.

$100,000 to be issued to Xenia subscribers for new capital, common stock.

$195,000 common stock to remain in the treasury, not issued.

No promotion stock whatever will ever be issued. A modest commission, allowed by law and fixed by the Board of Directors, may be paid a salesman for selling such stock as it should desire to sell.

The need is urgent for a few more men to take enough stock to assure the plant for Xenia people. There is no reason why these men should not make a modest profit upon the stock they desire to resell immediately. We venture to predict that any stock held for two years will become so profitable that no holder will part with it.

EARNING POWER

Mr. Strawn has orders ready to close for more than ten machines as soon as manufacturing arrangements are completed. They can be put into the printers' hands within 6 months.

The presses cost about $3,500 to manufacture. The buyer pays $10,000 plus 10% royalty on the gross earnings of the machine. This means that the machines are not sold—they are leased, just as the United Shoe Machines are leased, and the vending machines, all of which constitute some of the most profitable property known.

Printing is expensive, and these royalties are based upon that expense. Even with the royalty, however, the printer who owns one of these machines can undersell his competitors and get the business, turning it out in enormous quantities.

Within six months, therefore, we shall be able to make from sales (or rather, lease contracts) at least $50,000 manufacturing profit and assure royalties aggregating, conservatively estimated, $50,000 more, per year. In another six months a repetition of this schedule will add another $100,000 to the profits of the company. The manufacturing profit, once made, is ended. The royalty profit is pyramided year after year, growing in volume rather than diminishing, and at no sales expense. Can any person who reads these words fail to get the vision of the enormous earning power ahead of this organization? Get any printer, large or small, who knows printing costs and volume possibilities to figure this royalty earning power for you. Can labels are printed in full colors by millions—not by thousands—and they cost around $4.75 per thousand. One Packing concern alone—Campbells—has a capacity of over a million cans per day. Add to this the volume, steadily increasing, of circulars, form letters, meat and butter and bread wrappers in color or not, as desired—the field is boundless, and the cost of printing is steadily mounting.

If this industry gets away from us, we predict that we will regret it to the last day of our lives. If it comes here and if you are not with us, you will never get another chance to come in. This industry is going to finance itself, and more than finance itself from the very start.

Let every man who can invest $100 to $25,000 come at once and investigate. See the press and help! This appeal will never appear again. It is NOW OR NEVER. Friday or Saturday—this week.

Call at The Xenia Grain Co., or The Miami Cereal Co. office. After office hours call 309-W.

AMERICAN MILLIONAIRES, WOMEN, PATRIOTS, ARE PRAISED BY EMINENT ENGLISHMAN

London, April 27.—Travelers' tales are apt to be exciting but inaccurate; but I hope I shall escape the manifold temptations of the returned traveler today. One can only repay the privilege of a journey such as we under took in the United States by absolute faithfulness to one's impressions.

No ex-Lord Mayor can be said to be ignorant of what is meant by "the strenuous life," but nothing in my experience of that high office exceeded the gloriously efficient "hustle" of our few weeks in the United States.

I noticed the perceptible quickening of the pulses of the national life of the United States since I was last in the country.

I would not wish to draw any particular conclusions from this. Although inclined to deplore the modern demand for change, and excitement as ends in themselves, I do not suppose that America is moving any more rapidly in this direction than we ourselves. If, in America, this tendency seemed more noticeable than it is here, I suppose it is because with her magnificent youth and abundant vitality America has less in the way of inertia and conservatism to overcome in building up her social machine.

WEALTHY MEN PUBLICLY SPIRITED

Another point that has previously impressed me, and did so on this occasion, is the matter of public-spiritedness of men of wealth in America. It is of course popularly regarded as "the land of millionaires," but, however that may be, there certainly are very rich men, a good proportion of whom use their money lavishly for the public weal.

The impression one gets is that a greater number of men of wealth regard their wealth in this way, as a trust with greater moral responsibilities than in this country. This may be a correct impression, explanation being that the growth of America's civilization has been so stupendously rapid that the stimulus to the imagination and patriotism of the man who has the good fortune to share in the consequent financial expansion is much more powerful than it would be in England. It is to the great honor of America and her people that this stimulus is responded to so magnificently.

I hope I shall not be misunderstood when I say that American womanhood made a most vivid and favorable impression upon me. Owing I suppose to the many opportunities afforded by the rapid development of so many of their towns, a large proportion of American women take a very full share in social activities and a keen interest in local, State and Federal politics.

Everyone knows that in America there is quite a general interest in public oratory. What is almost a lost art here is the subject of much devotion there. In this too, we soon found that the American ladies were abundantly gifted. More than once we were full of admiration and not entirely without envy of the fluency and resourcefulness of these Portias of the West.

One cannot too greatly admire the unique spirit of nationality that is being evoked in the United States amongst her new-born citizens. It is a spirit singularly free from intolerance and pride.

America of today is singularly fortunate in her leading men, most of whom I was privileged to meet.

President Harding's striking personality seemed to me to be an embodiment of his general policy. Here, one felt, is a close observer of his fellow men, one who, behind an appearance of watchful aloofness, shield a heart that beats in sympathy with the trials of suffering humanity. America like her President, is ready—when she feels that the right time has come—to stretch out a helping hand to those who need it. The President's daughter, born Thursday night.

INJURED AVIATOR NOW RECOVERING

Columbus, O., April 27.—Sergeant F. P. Shaw, injured in the crash of the Martin bomber at Dayton Saturday, in which four others were killed, is slowly recovering at the Fort Hayes army hospital here, attending physicians said today.

The necessity for an operation is believed to be past. Shaw is able to receive visitors now but his physicians predicted that it will be a month yet before he is able to leave the hospital.

DAYTON ADVANCES CLOCKS ON SUNDAY

The aggravation of two-hour trips to Dayton during the summer months will start Sunday, when that city advances its clocks one hour to conform with daylight saving time. Dayton has been using the summer time schedule since former President Wilson made it a national law during the World War.

Xenia also conformed to this time schedule until last year, when the favorable vote of the commission was overruled by petition, and a special election resulted in defeat of the measure permanently.

Xenians will have to remember that from Sunday on, it will be two hours to reach Dayton by traction instead of one hour, due to the change in time, and that the distance can be covered in less than no time in coming from Dayton to Xenia.

TAXI ORDINANCE IS AGAIN TABLED BY COMMISSIONERS

The proposed ordinance regulating taxicab operation, and which is being backed by taxicab operators, was tabled another time by the City Commission Thursday night, pending the preparation of a schedule of fares rates by operators to be presented at the next meeting.

The ordinance, sponsored by Commissioner Harry Fisher, and providing for an increase of the annual city license, was tabled pending consideration when placed on its first reading several weeks ago. Last week, Commissioners asked that a delegation of taxicab operators be brought to the next meeting.

The re-drafted ordinance, providing for the license fee, also includes a rate clause, and after hearing Dan Donovan, of the Yellow Cab Line, and William Wike and Oscar Sturgeon, private operators, commissioners decided to let the operators prepare their own rate schedule to be drafted into the ordinance at the next meeting.

The ordinance will provide a $10 fee for machines with a capacity for six or less passengers, $15 for machines with a capacity of 12 or less and $25 fee for machines with a carrying capacity of more than 12. Offences against the ordinance will be rated as misdemeanors and punishable by a fine not to exceed $100.

Ordinances placed on their second reading Thursday night were all passed. This includes an ordinance providing an increase of $10 monthly in the salaries of firemen ranking from Captain down; an ordinance making it a misdemeanor to follow within a square of fire apparatus going to a fire, to park within the same block as the fire, to approach fire apparatus going to a fire without parking and to drive over fire hose; and the usual annual ordinances providing for street cleaning, sprinkling and sweeping.

Old Housekeeper: "I want to tell other women how I make my shoes last twice as long as most people do. I always keep them on trees when not wearing them. When I get them wet from rain I put them on the trees, too, away from artificial heat; when they are about half dry, I rub them with oil—black shoes with linseed oil, tan shoes with castor oil, and patent leather shoes with white grease. Scratches on patent leather slippers will not be noticeable if you paint them with a mixture of olive oil and jet black ink (put on with an old glue brush). My everyday work shoes of black leather hardly ever need polish because, ever since the day I bought them, I have rubbed them at intervals with either oil or grease—just a little at a time. These things help the housekeeper to save money."

Mother of Two: "I am sending you this note because I would like to have you tell your young married Column Readers of a way that I made my husband's salary 'stretch' when I was first married. It was a tiny salary then (as so many newlyweds' salaries are!), but I made a rule, from the start, that I would never buy a single thing (for furnishings or personal dress) without thinking it over for 24 hours! It was hard to do—but I did it. I'd go down street to the stores and see a 'bargain' in house furnishings and just long to buy it; then I'd remember my rule, and I'd go home and think it over—generally ending in the sensible decision that I didn't really need that article. If I hadn't made this rule, lots of money would have dribbled away from impulsive, unnecessary purchases. I shall wait to see this hint in print, for I do want other young married women to try it. I've 'been there' myself—and I know how hard it is to make that salary cover everything!"

M. M.: "I tighten the sagging cane seats of my kitchen chairs by turning the chair upside down, saturating the seat with hot water, then drying in the sun."

Bride: "I recently cleaned an old photograph by rubbing it gently with a piece of absorbent cotton wet with alcohol. The alcohol evaporated—and the photograph was clean. I thought other people might like to use it."

Tomorrow—Making the Porch Cozy for Summer.

A PURITAN WIFE

By Jane Phelps

CHAPTER LXX

Almost insane with fear, Ann ran back and forth, wringing her hands, crying for Jack to come to her. Dick, white and trembling, got out the car, and with hopeful words went in one direction, Nora running along the road in the opposite. Ann was persuaded to stay near the house in the hope he might come back.

It was Nora who found the little fellow, tired, dusty, weeping. She grabbed him in her arms and hurried back to the house, where, with a cry of joy, Ann snatched him from her, crying and laughing over him hysterically.

"I've got to see Grace," he said when Ann asked why he went away. "Grace told me she 'ould give me horsie,' he sobbed, the tears streaking his little dirty face.

Nora had run now to meet Dick when he should turn back, and Jack tired with his tramp, fell asleep in Ann's arms.

"It's her fault! Something she said to him made him do it. She isn't satisfied to take Dick. She tried to take my baby, too."

Dick had gone some distance before he turned, and Jack had been sleeping in Ann's arms fully 15 minutes before he returned with Nora beside him.

"The little rogue, giving us such a scare," Dick said as he bent and kissed the dirty little face. "What do you suppose made him do it?" Nora had told where she found him, trudging alone in the dust crying.

"Grace made him do it," Ann replied in a voice full of hatred.

"What are you saying, Ann? Grace wasn't who?" Dick turned to Nora, who shook her head, her eyes on Ann, the hatred in her mistress' face reflected in hers.

"She told him she would give him something and he was going after it—my darling baby, all alone on the road. He might have been killed—or stolen," Ann said, the hardness still in her voice as she hugged him closer.

"The little rascal, and he was going toward Ned's, too." There was intense relief in Dick's face, but now that Jack was at home, unharmed, he could see no reason why Ann should act as she did. The idea of blaming Grace!

"Nora," Ann said, when Dick left them to put up the car. "Never let him out of your sight one minute after this. When I am busy you can neglect the work let it go. But never—never give that girl a chance to be alone with my baby—not for a minute."

"That I won't, Ma'am. I seen her talkin' to him yesterday, talkin' in that coaxin' way of hers, but I never thought she was tryin' to tease the little darlin' away." Then, her indignation rising, she said: "What makes you let her come here. Mrs. Belden? She's no good, and is goin' to make more trouble for you."

"I can't help—can't prevent her," Ann said, her dignity, that Nora was a servant, all forgotten in her fear for her boy, "but we'll keep Jackie away from her—she shan't touch him or talk to him."

"I'll see to that!" Nora declared, going into the house, muttering. For an hour Ann held her baby boy, then she awakened, she bathed and dressed him, telling him gently that he never—never must, run away again. But his lip quivered, and he cried that he wanted to see "Grace," that he wanted his "horsie."

"Mother will get you a horsie, a big, lovely one you can ride on," "Like Grace's?" Jack asked.

"Yes. A saddle with stirrups for your little feet and all." Satisfied, the boy was his own gay little self again. That evening Ned, Bessie and Grace drove over. Before Ann could stop him, Dick was telling of Jack's adventure, that he was going to see Grace to get the "horsie" she had promised him.

"Oh, the darling!" Grace cried, catching him up in her arms. Violently Ann tore him from her and said:

"If he had been killed it would have been your fault! Telling him if he came over you'd give him a horse. Don't you ever dare coax him again."

"Why, Ann! What a temper! Your father and mother should see you. How did I know the darling would try to come over just because I said that?"

Ann had taken the invitation for granted, feeling sure something of the sort had been said to Jack. Now paying no attention to Dick's black looks, to Ned's and Bessie's, she carried Jack off to bed.

Tomorrow—A Quarrel and an Accident.

Wherever motor cars are discussed, and that's nearly everywhere, somebody is sure to remark—"That Studebaker Special-Six is a regular automobile."

The Studebaker Special-Six has been on the market for four years. Each year has seen added to it such refinements and improvements as time has made possible. Today there are more than one hundred and twenty-five thousand in every-day service and we don't believe there's a dissatisfied owner.

The name was selected because comparative tests against all kinds of cars made this car stand out as something special and apart from the ordinary run of automobiles. It requires special merit to warrant calling any car a special—and if the value isn't special the car quickly fades away.

Count the "Special-Sixes" that have appeared since the arrival of the Studebaker Special-Six. That's the proof of the value of the original Special-Six.

TWELVE DEAD, 20 INJURED IN FIRE

VICTIMS ARE TRAPPED IN SLEEP BY FLAMES IN EASTERN TENEMENT

Police Reserves Rushed to Scene Early Friday as Blaze Sweeps Five-Story Structure—Cause of Fire Is Undetermined

New York, April 27.—Twelve persons perished and twenty were injured in a fire which swept through the upper floors of the five-story tenement house at 69 East 109th St., early today.

Most of the victims were women and children. One whole family was annihilated. This was the family of Mr. and Mrs. Kxis, both of whom were killed along with their two children, Bertha, aged 21, and David, aged 19.

Mrs. Mandelbam and her six children all met death on the top floor. The young victims were Minnie, 15; Michael, 12; Morris, 10; Benjamin, 8; Alexander, 4, and a baby boy aged 18 months.

An unidentified dead woman was found to be Mrs. Bransteln, a tenant on the third floor.

Most of the victims were trapped in their sleep by the flames which rolled through the building with amazing rapidity.

Three alarms were turned in in rapid succession, but before the firemen reached the scene the whole upper part of the structure was a seething mass of flames.

Ambulances were called from Mount Sinai and other hospitals and first aid was given in the street to the most serious of the injured.

Two victims died in Mount Sinai hospital. The bodies of most of the other victims were found on the fourth and fifth floors.

Aroused by smoke and the roar of the flames many residents of the tenement made their way through the clouds of stifling black smoke to the fire escapes.

There is a long drop between the lowest step of the escape and the street. As a group of frightened men, women and children huddled on the escape, fearing to leap a taxi cab approached. The driver drove upon the sidewalk under the escape and the refugees jumped from the escape to the roof of the taxi, thence to the street.

Edward Bronstein, trapped on the third floor was rescued with great difficulty. He was taken to Mount Sinai Hospital suffering from burns.

Search Along African Coast Fruitless Vessels Report

London, April 27.—Three lifeboats filled with passengers and seamen from the abandoned Portuguese steamship Mosamedes have reached Port Alexander on the African coast said a Central News dispatch from Capetown this afternoon. Hope is now entertained that all the missing 237 passengers and seamen will be saved.

Capetown, April 27.—Lifeboats, containing 237 passengers and seamen from the abandoned Portuguese steamship Mosamedes were still missing today despite search of the African coast by numerous vessels.

The steamship Muansa has been scouring the coast line in all directions from Cape Frio, where the Mosamedes went aground in a gale on Wednesday.

The South African government is considering sending an expedition to search uninhabited, isolated regions in the possibility that the small boats containing the fugitives put ashore in one of these districts, where there is no telegraphic communication with the outside world.

Search had been stimulated by the fact that there are 29 women and 25 children among the missing passengers.

Miss Dixon had charged Ruth with seduction and alleged he was the father of her child.

Hyman E. Kuehl, Ruth's attorney, had received permission of the court to present the testimony of Robert McChesney, young man who formerly lived in the apartment occupied by Miss Dixon and the married couple with whom she made her home. The papers serving notice that the suit was dropped were signed by Miss Dixon, Mrs. Barbara V. Echoe, her guardian and George Feinberg, her attorney.

CLARA PHILLIPS' SISTER BELIEVED HELD IN SOUTH

Mrs. Etta May Jackson Mistaken for "Tiger Woman" is Theory

TELEGRAMS RECEIVED

Authorities Think Person They are Detaining is Not Murderess

Los Angeles, Calif., April 27.—Mrs. Etta May Jackson, the "baby sister" of Clara Phillips, "hammer murderess" is believed to be the woman held at Tegucigalpa, Honduras, with Jesse Carson and with a woman believed to be Mrs. Phillips. This was learned today in establishing the almost positive identity of Mrs. Phillips, after authorities had been shown an exclusive and copyrighted International News Service dispatch from Tegucigalpa.

The authorities here based their belief on the fact that among the telegrams and letters taken from the woman thought to be Mrs. Phillips, Honduras authorities found one addressed to "Jackson" at Tampico and signed "Mrs. R. M. Young," the name of the woman thought to be the "tiger woman."

The message asked Jackson when he was coming. The reply to this message, signed "Ben Norton," said he was coming as well as sending "Jack," and to await his letter. The name "Ben Norton" is believed to be the way Jackson signed the message to hide his identity.

Mrs. Jackson, before her marriage to R. S. Jackson was Etta May Weaver. Her husband is known to be an oil man and rancher near Tampico and it was believed by officers here in view of the telegram found in "Mrs. Young's" possession that "Jackson" is Mrs. Phillips brother-in-law and has been in constant communication with her and supplying her with money.

PRISONER FATALLY SHOT IN ATTEMPT TO MAKE GETAWAY

Three Effect Temporary Escape From Ohio State Penitentiary

Columbus, O., April 27.—Shot near the heart, Frank Rybicki, 26, Cuyahoga County penitentiary prisoner is believed dying. He was fired upon by penitentiary officials early this morning when he failed to comply with a command to halt after escaping from the big state prison with Raymond Nowak, 21, and Walter Niegoda, 22, Lucas County prisoners.

The three prisoners jammed a window in the dormitory at the prison brick plant, where they had sleeping quarters. The escape was made while the guard was being changed in the prison tower at 2 a. m. Leaping from the window, the prisoners disappeared about eight miles from the penitentiary three hours later. Rybicki, when ordered to halt, attempted to run and was shot through the back by one of the guards. The other two men surrendered immediately.

HARDING VICTORY IN WORLD COURT BATTLE VIRTUALLY ASSURED

Developments in Last 48 Hours Tend Toward Belief That Threatened Split Dwindles Down to Mere Handful of Opposition.

Washington, April 27.—On the basis of events during the past forty-eight hours, President Harding came to the conclusion today that the threatened split in the Republican party over his world court proposal had dwindled down to the opposition of a handful of "irreconcilables" and that success for the administration's program was virtually assured.

The dove of peace is fluttering around between the capital and the White House with Senators Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts, and James E. Watson of Indiana—arch opponents of the League of Nations, and still wary of the court plan—still seeking a compromise by which the President can win the support of the rank and file of his party for his plan to make the United States a member of the international tribunal set up by the League.

Senator Borah, of Idaho, leader of the Republican "irreconcilables," was out with a formal statement today, lambasting the Harding proposal as a definite step toward actual participation in the councils of the League of Nations but there is a distinct current of compromise with a strong probability that alarming differences within the party are going to be adjusted.

This trend toward a compromise had become so marked today that friends of the court proposal, after "counting noses" thought the actual voting opposition in the Senate would be limited to Borah of Idaho, La Follette of Wisconsin, Johnson of California, Moses of New Hampshire, Brandegee of Connecticut, Shipstead of Minnesota, Frazier of North Dakota, Norris of Nebraska, Howell of Montana and Brookhart of Iowa. Leaders like Smoot of Utah, Wadsworth of New York and Curtis of Kansas, the Republican "whip" might vote against the acceptance of the Harding court plan, but they are expected to be won

What's more, the sale of such articles is on the increase, even though recent state and congressional enactments have rendered them obsolete from a statutory standpoint, the speaker added.

The death of Lord Carnarvon, whose expositions revealed the tomb of Pharaoh Tutankhamen in the Valley of Kings, caused a sudden cessation of the popular demand for jewelry of Egyptian design, according to Jacob Levin, of superstition caused by newspaper stories suggesting that the Briton's death resulted from a curse for all desecrators of tombs.

BURGLAR KILLED IN PISTOL BATTLE

Akron, April 27.—Ernest M. Myers, 24, confessed burglar, was killed in a gun battle with three Akron police early today, as he was returning to his home here, after participating in a burglary in Shaker Heights, a Cleveland suburb.

Tipped by Cleveland officials, a squad of police awaited his return home. Disregarding a command to halt he pulled his gun and started firing. Three police guns barked out an answer and Myers died thirty minutes later in a hospital, first, however, confessing his crime, police say.

LEGISLATURE IN SESSION AGAIN ACTS ON VETOES

Bombarded With Requests To Make Up Appropriation Slashes

UNIVERSITIES SUFFER

Governor Fails to Approve Building Budget of State University

Columbus, O., April 27.—Despite conferences of Senate and House leaders, and numerous group meetings of senators and representatives here this morning, a definite plan of action by the Republican majority relative to the question of passing bills over Governor Donahay's veto had not been decided upon at noon.

A strong sentiment developed in House in favor of passing no measures at all over the governor's veto but to leave things as they are until next January.

Senate leaders announced that no local measures will be considered at this time, although there "quite possibly" will be action on some of the "program" bills favored by the majority, primarily the Taft tax bill.

Columbus, O., April 27.—Recommending to the members of the State Legislature that they provide for a commission to make an exhaustive study of the general question of municipal courts, Governor Donahay today declared that "no additional courts of this kind will be established with my approval until this has been adopted a uniform state code governing all."

The governor asserted that he would approve no further tinkering with details of existing municipal court laws until such uniformity is brought about. "We have in the state at the present time, some 17 municipal courts in as many cities, each having from one to ten judges."

Columbus, O., April 27.—The State Legislature, which reconvenes here this afternoon after a three weeks recess, is expected to be "bombed" with requests to make up the $4,000,300 slashed from the general appropriation bill by Governor Donahay.

The largest single cut included the entire building budget of $1,728,000 for the Ohio State University which the governor disapproved because, instead of being specifically itemized as required by law, it was "lumped together."

"I refuse to be a party to such concealment of plans from the public when millions are involved, and, therefore, disapprove the entire amount," said the governor. "I am sorry that our largest education institution—the pride of the state—may become the innocent sufferer, but I cannot do otherwise and maintain my self respect."

The governor vetoed the specific appropriation of $238,000 for an addition to the archaeological building at Ohio State also. All salary increases for the presidents of the state educational institutions were disapproved.

As the governor cannot veto parts of items, he struck out the entire appropriation for salaries for the presidents of Kent and Bowling Green Normal Schools and Miami and Ohio Universities and will recommend that the emergency board transfer bonds to take care of the salaries.

The governor also vetoed building appropriations of $365,000 at Miami, $400,000 at Ohio University, Athens, $175,000 at Kent Normal and $275,000 at Bowling Green Normal.

Appropriations for armories at Canton, London, Ohio City, Dresden and Winchester, varying from $30,000 to $85,000 were vetoed because the governor said the adjutant general advised that these were not as necessary as armories for some other cities.

In the sundry claims bill, an item of $64,570.71 representing the claims of three coal companies for coal furnished state institutions during the administration of former Governor Davis, was vetoed, because of alleged illegality of the contracts. The governor recommended that the claims be adjudicated in court.

An appropriation of $25,000 for paving the road from Hebron to Buckeye Lake, Licking County, favored by Columbus and Newark business men, was cut out by the governor because, he said, the money "could not be expended by any official department of the state government."

A $200,000 appropriation for a new state institution for the feeble minded was vetoed, the governor explaining that he favored further development of the plant at Orient.

Among the bills permitted by the governor to become law by lapse of time are the Freeman-Collister Motor Bus regulation measure; the Hart bill providing for construction of a $1,000,000 state office building; the Alwood sewer rental bill and the Knapp bill legalizing the use of branch registers of motor vehicles under the Secretary of State.

BORAH ATTACKS HARDING PLAN OF A WORLD COURT

Washington, April 27.—Senator William E. Borah, irreconcilable leader in the famous league of nations battle, plunged into the fight against the administration's world court plan with a formal statement denouncing the proposal as a step towards the league.

In a forceful analysis of what the president's recommendation means, as he sees it, Senator Borah aims to show how entry to the court, the child of the league of nations, inevitably would take the United States into the league itself.

The proposition advanced by Mr. Harding that this country can go into the league court and still continue to be against the league," the senator said, "is impossible. It would never be suggested if political expediency did not seem to require it," Borah added.

The senator declared that the league of nations created the court, it elects the judges, sustains the tribunal and maintains its power. "When the league fails," he said, "the court fails. Therefore, if the court is to be maintained, the league has got to be preserved. Once the United States becomes obligated to uphold the court, it can not avoid its obligation to uphold the agency responsible for the court, the league itself."

Senator Borah charged that both Hughes and Hoover, the president's chief advisers on the court issue, are "under written pledges to exert their powers to take us into the league." He added: "The Republican party, in asserting that it can go into the court and stay out of the league, is taking a position which will bring down upon it the moral condemnation of everyone." The senator continued:

League Sustains Court. "It is conceded that the sole source of existence and the sole power of maintenance of this particular court is the league of nations. It created the court, it elects the judges, it fills the vacancies. It pays the expenses of the court. It maintains and preserves the court. When the league falls, the court falls. When the league breaks down the court disappears. If the court is to be preserved, we must first preserve the league.

"How can we be indifferent or disregardful of the very foundation upon which the court rests and without which it must perish? Will it not inevitably become our duty, after we have entered the court, to do all in our power to preserve the league in order that we may preserve the court?"

"There is a great campaign being organized now to take us into the league in order that the league may be preserved. Suppose it becomes perfectly apparent to all, as it now is to so many, that without the United States goes into the league the league must fail. Would those people who are now advocating this court under such circumstances continue to oppose the league and let the court perish? They would know that the moment the league broke down their court must go. What kind of a position of stultification would a man be in who, under such circumstances, would stand up and argue that this court is a great thing, that we ought to preserve it, but we must destroy the foundation upon which it rests?"

SAY PLAYGROUNDS REDUCE NUMBER OF DELINQUENCY CASES

That municipal playgrounds such as planned for Xenia, are effective in reducing child delinquency all over the country, is the assertion of experts of the Playground and Recreation Association of America, which offers service to play ground ventures and which is assisting in the promotion of Xenia's proposed recreational program.

The assertion is based on returns from a national questionnaire, in which inquiries were sent to over 2,400 cities in the United States and Canada. Replies were received from 1,053 although many of those that failed to respond are known to be carrying on public recreation in some form.

A decrease of 75 per cent in the number of juvenile court cases was reported in a single district in St. Louis after the establishment of a playground. According to the manager of the Edison Light Company of Duluth, breakages of street electric lights on Halloween dropped 37 per cent as compared with the year before because of the municipal Halloween program. In St. Paul playground directors saved 75 boys from going to the reformatory and from repeating their offenses, it is said, and the decrease in delinquency reported in Yakima, Washington, was 50 per cent.

As a result of a Passaic, New Jersey recreational hall where 68 basketball teams have their games, the judge of the juvenile court is seriously considering closing up shop, it is said by the Association officials. The national inquiry showed that 505 cities, maintained 4,601 play centers in 1922, and the total number of workers employed, was 10,867. Of these 2,026 were employed throughout the year, an increase of 478 or 30 per cent over the year-round workers in 1921. Chicago spent over $1,500,000 for municipal recreation last year, the report showed, while New York appropriated $489,000 and Philadelphia more than $311,000.

The Association itself answered 14,000 requests for help by correspondence and consultation at its New York headquarters, it is said. The Recreation Congress at Atlantic City last October was attended by 567 delegates from 207 cities in the United States and from two foreign countries. Ten state campaigns for compulsory physical education in the schools were conducted and 163 cities were served by field secretaries.

ENTERS BUSINESS IN WILMINGTON

William R. Collins, of near Jamestown, former principal of the Ross Township High School, will enter the insurance business with headquarters in Wilmington, after the close of the present school year, he has announced.

Instead he has accepted the agency of the New York Mutual Life Insurance Company in Fayette, Clinton and Warren Counties, with headquarters in Wilmington, and will enter upon his new duties at the conclusion of the school year.

Mattie T. Wood

Mattie T. Wood Conner, daughter of John and Sarah Wood, was born in Clinton County, Ohio, March 12, 1865, and died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. C. Merrett, April 23, 1922, aged 58 years, 1 month and 11 days.

She is survived by one brother, Edward Wood, who lives in the West. When a young lady, she came into the White Oak neighborhood and engaged in teaching school. Here she met Mills Conner and later became his wife. Two daughters, Inez and Mary, were born to them, becoming their constant companions and great, earthly comfort through life.

Sister Conner united with the White Oak M. P. Church, to which congregation her husband had belonged since childhood, later, when this congregation disbanded, she and her husband united with the Jamestown M. E. Church to which she belonged at death.

For the past several months she had suffered from paralysis which rendered her dependant upon the kind ministrations of her daughter. It can be truthfully said of this daughter and her husband, that they did to the utmost all that they could do for her comfort. No more enduring crown can be placed on the brow of a son or daughter than the faithful discharge of those duties which spring from filial affection.

Wedded as we are to the things of sight and sense, we have not the power to see clearly beyond the veil that hides those that have gone before, but Christian faith coming to our aid as a much needed friend, aids our fears depart, soothes our pain and in a soft sweet voice tells us that we have lost them for only a little while, and we will find them in the morning, ing.

Give me, Oh Father, to Thy throne access, Unshaken seat of endless happiness, Give me, untrilled, the source of good to see, Give me Thy light and fix mine eyes on Thee.

LOCAL TEACHER TO GIVE UP POSITION

A long connection as a teacher in the Xenia City Schools was severed Thursday when Miss Mary Gretsinger, teacher at the Spring Hill School, handed her resignation to Superintendent of Schools C. A. Waltz, Thursday.

Miss Gretsinger is planning to leave May 14 for an extended trip to California, and will probably spend about a year in that state. Miss Margaret Clark, former teacher at Spring Hill, has been temporarily appointed to Miss Gretsinger's place pending a regular appointment.

Miss Gretsinger began her connection with the Xenia City School 28 years ago, when she was added to the staff of teachers at the old West building, abandoned many years ago. After teaching there six years, she was transferred to the Spring Hill building, which has been the home of her teaching career for 22 years.

At the Spring Hill building, Miss Gretsinger taught different classes during different years of her work there, having at different times had charge of all grades with the exception of the first and second. When the teaching work all over the city was departmentalized, Miss Gretsinger was placed in charge of mathematics and music in the fourth, fifth and sixth grades, with which she was occupied until her retirement Thursday.

As Miss Clark is on the teachers' retirement list, her appointment is only temporary and she will be relieved as soon as a regular appointment can be made.

Styles BY LENORE

This is one of the things an original frock will do. To an altogether exceedingly simple foundation, it will add a deep pouch pocket of pleasant shape, and presto! in the company of one hundred frocks there will be none other with just that note of individuality.

Navy twill or kasha cloth may be used to make such a frock, and if intended for office wear, the sleeves may be lengthened—preferably to the wrist, in keeping with the fashion. The stitching around the neck and on the bodice, the buttons and the button holes, are in rust color and the pouch is embroidered in the same color. There are very narrow pleated panels inset at the sides of the skirt.

THE CHEERFUL CHERUB

Now realism is the style And drab and dreary all things look— Well, I don't like it much in life But I can stand it in a book.

Give me, Oh Father, to Thy throne access, Unshaken seat of endless happiness, Give me, untrilled, the source of good to see, Give me Thy light and fix mine eyes on Thee.

ASKED TO LOCATE ALLEGED SWINDLER

Police are searching for a man who gave his name as the Rev. C. M. Mohammed, believed to be a Greek, Armenian or Arabian, and posing as a preacher, who swindled C. E. Arbogast of this city, out of the price of a railway ticket to Pittsburgh, with a fake robbery story Thursday.

Mohammed said he had been robbed of his pocketbook, containing all of his money, while on a train coming to this city from Cincinnati where, he alleged he had been preaching. He said he spoke here at the First Baptist Church four years ago and remembering Mr. Arbogast, looked him up for financial assistance in order to continue his way to Pittsburgh. Mr. Arbogast gave the man a check for $8.86 made payable to I. F. Emery, Pennsylvania Railroad ticket agent for a ticket to Pittsburgh, but later saw him walking west on Main Street. When he accosted the man, the latter said he returned uptown for his grip and then had become lost. Mr. Arbogast again showed him the way to the depot, but when it was learned later that he had obtained the ticket but had not boarded the train, the case was reported to police.

Several other Xenia men were swindled by a person believed to be the same man several years ago. It is said, Police believe the man is an Armenian peddler living in Dayton, and Dayton police have been furnished with a description of him.

CASTING OIL ON TROUBLED WATERS—ENTWINGING U. S. AND TURK FLAGS.

We seem to have come to the time when "oil" has become a wonderful factor in world affairs. It is not only a source of great wealth in our country but in other countries as well. And not only this, but it appears also in the shape of a "bugbear" in the pathway of peace between nations. As such, it has been the main factor in defeating friendly relations between the United States and Mexico for years. Some of our citizens had pre-empted oil claims down there from which trouble arose, which we are now trying to adjust.

And now comes "oil" as a feature which the nations are having to cast upon the troubled waters of affairs, in their attempt to adjust matters with the Turks at Lausanne.

It seems that an American syndicate headed by retired Rear Admiral Colby Chester has secured from the Turkish government a concession in the way of oil grants, now alluded to in all the papers as "the Chester concession," which is creating quite a stir. The intimation is that this concession has been secured by under-handed means and that England, France and other nations are looking upon it with suspicion as a "grab game" on the part of the Americans.

The subject has been up at Lausanne in a casual way, but is likely to have further attention. On this occasion it is reported that the Turkish delegation, through its spokesman, declared the Chester concession to be entirely valid, and said that it was granted not because Chester was an American, or Turkey wished to favor the United States, but because Americans know how to do business on a business basis without appealing to their Government for help or seeking to exercise any "economic pressure" against Turkey.

We quote now from the Christian Science Monitor: "Viewed in the light of recent history, that was an amazing—a revolting—spectacle presented at a dinner in a New York hotel, Thursday night, April 19th, when the Stars and Stripes and the Turkish Star and Crescent were wreathed together over the speakers' table, and a retired admiral of the United States Navy vied with a Turkish Bey in eulogizing Turkey, and expressing contempt for Great Britain and for Lord Curzon, who represented that Nation at Lausanne.

Now, in pursuit of what a Turkish spokesman at the dinner of the concessionaires called "the bacon, and pretty fat, juicy bacon at that," the Government of the United States is to be dragged into relations with Turkey, against which the conscience and the intelligence of the American people will revolt. For fat contracts in railroad building and in the development of ports and for a share in the Mosul oil fields, it is urged that the Stars and Stripes and the Star and Crescent be lovingly entwined, and that the United States set itself sharply in antagonism to its former allies, France and Great Britain, who claim prior rights in the same territory. Is it possible that this hunger for fat and juicy bacon, this appetite for oil, is to be permitted to entangle the Government of the United States in the most perilous adventure in dollar diplomacy that history has ever recorded?

What the Turk meant to Christian civilization during the war is well told in former Ambassador Morgenthau's book of reminiscences of his service as United States representative at the Sublime Porte. It meant murder, wholesale assassination, massacre, looting, and rapine. We observe with interest that Ambassador Morgenthau, who saw the Turk near at hand, did not sit under the entwined flags at the dinner of the concessionaires.

If Admiral Chester, who seems to be persona grata to the State Department, will ask the Secretary of State of that official's experience during the period when the Turks were sweeping over Angora with fire and sword, completing there the work of extermination of the Christians which they had so successfully prosecuted in Armenia, he may learn some facts that were not brought out at his promotion dinner. Never was the State Department so overwhelmed with letters of appeal and of protest from the Christian people of the United States, from the churches and the philanthropic societies of the American Republic, as in that moment of Turkish triumph and blood guilt. Never has there been a more united or more widespread appeal for action by the United States to check the Turk in his devastating progress back into the Europe from which it was thought that his exemplary defeat in the World War had expelled him, as then. There was no response from the State Department or from the Administration.

AN OBJECT LESSON IN GREAT BRITAIN.

Is it not rather strange that certain English gentlemen should tour the United States for the purpose of advising or hinting what this country should do in the present world crisis? Is it not peculiar that these gentlemen should tell us of our economic blunders and the perils we are facing, the business depression and unemployment we are inviting by keeping out of European politics and enacting laws to protect America?

Great Britain and her colonies are in the European league of nations. Great Britain boasts that it is a free trade nation. According to the doctrine preached by our distinguished English visitors, Great Britain should be prosperous industrially and economically.

But what do we find in Great Britain? A crisis of no small proportions. There are more than 1,500,000 wage earners out of employment in Great Britain. According to official figures, one man in eight is unemployed in British industry generally. The number has increased during the past year, and the distress caused is cumulative and appalling. The average of the unemployed is about 22 per cent of the total. Just what to do is Great Britain's tragic problem now.

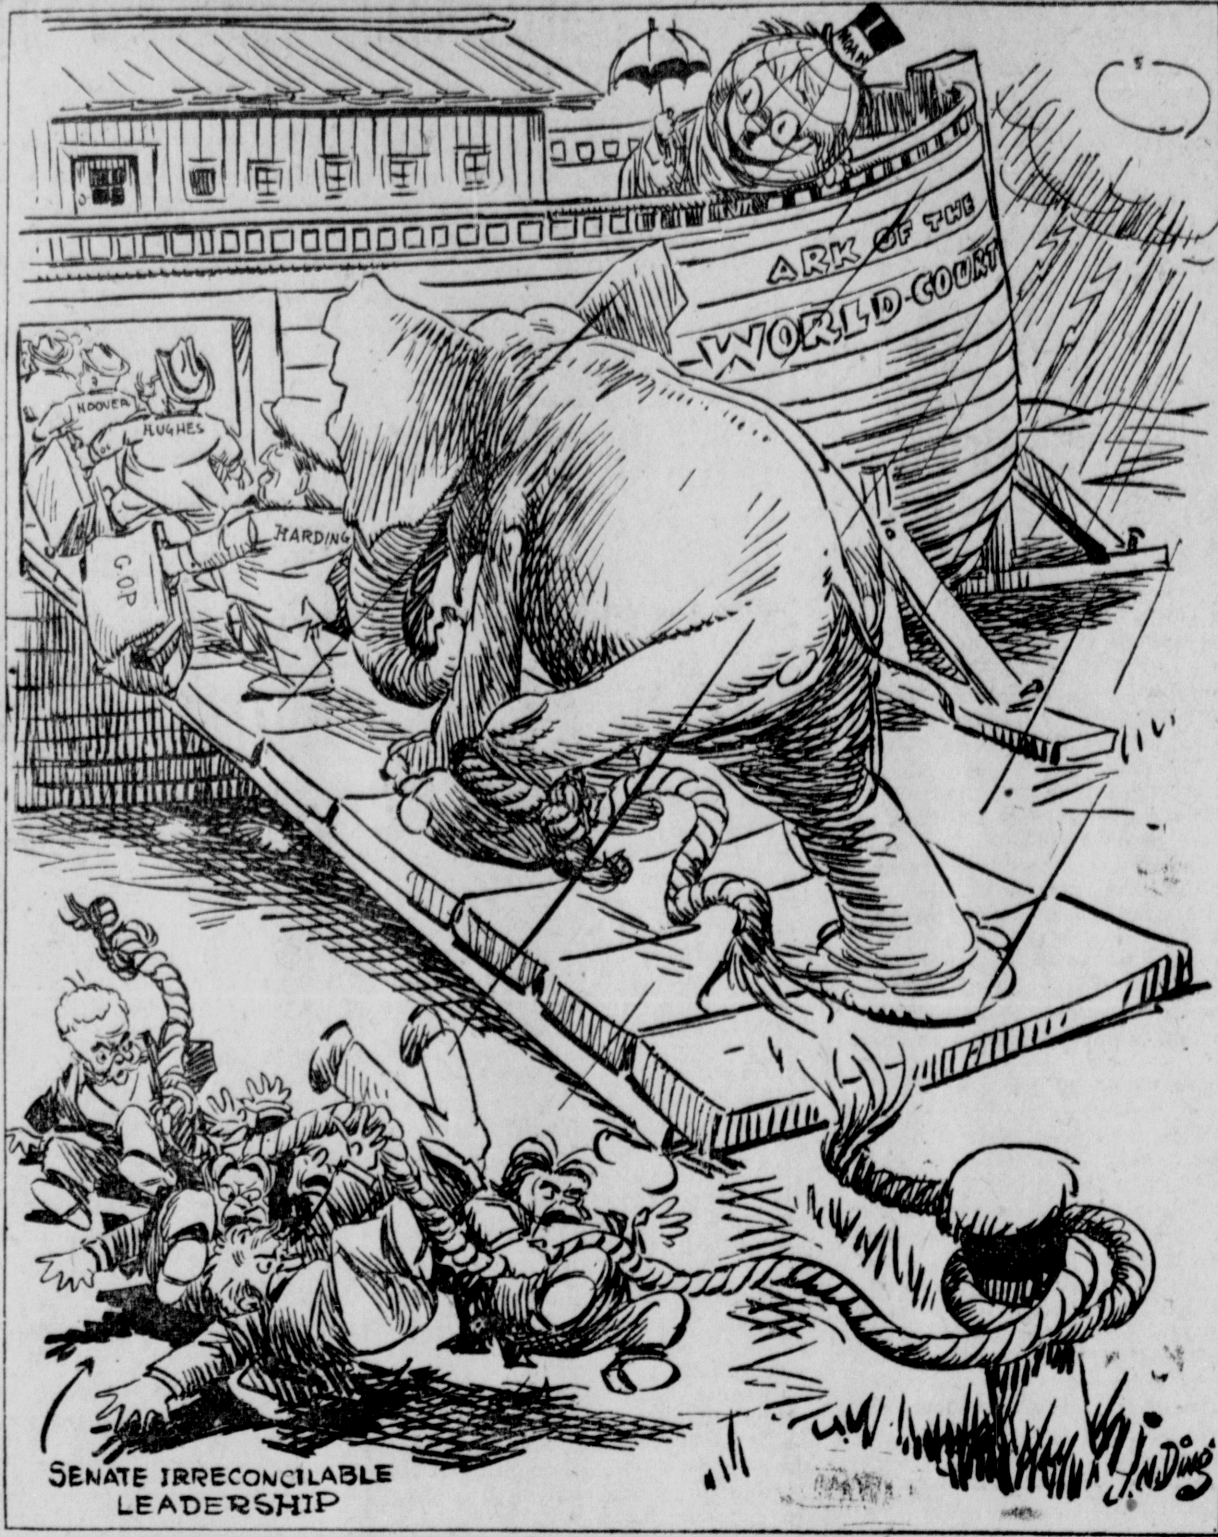

Why do not the English gentlemen touring this country, and telling the United States what must be done by this country to solve its economic problems, kindly return home and help solve their own domestic problems?

If there is any economic virtue in the European league of nations or in the program of free trade, it should manifest itself in Great Britain, a nation that qualifies in both particulars.

By sticking to its own knitting, the United States is getting along very well, thank you. Unemployment is declining rapidly, business is reviving satisfactorily.

Why not tell our lecturing foreigners that the United States intends to set its own house in order first, rendering aid to Europe as far as possible without injury to this country?

IF IT TURNS OUT ANYTHING LIKE BIBLICAL HISTORY SOMEBODY'S GOING TO BE LEFT OUT IN THE WET

1903--Twenty Years Ago--1923

Today, April 27, is the anniversary of the Jamestown cyclone in which five persons met their death and much valuable property was destroyed. It was nineteen years ago since the disaster occurred.

It is understood that Xenia Seminary will soon establish another professor's chair with the share of funds received from the Newburg, N. Y. property.

A dancing class has been organized in the city and met for the first time at the K. of P. Hall last evening, about twenty-five couples being in attendance.

The tide of travel through Xenia today is unusually heavy owing to the number of excursions bound for St. Louis to attend the dedicatory services of the World's Fair, tomorrow.

WELL SHAPED HIP

Any woman who is getting old, any woman who has had a baby, or any woman who has a tendency to be too fat should take particular care that the hips and abdomen do not become too large. This is a part of the body where flesh is most apt to collect. A thick line here will make the whole figure matronly, so that even a young face cannot give the impression of entire youthfulness.

The most usual remedy which a woman adopts is corseting, and the larger she grows the more tightly she laces. Unfortunately, this isn't a cure. The only real cure lies in diet and exercise. The best exercise is to stand with the hands on the hips and to bend forward as far as reacts beneficially upon the complexion.

Miss H. D.—Bobbed hair is worn as much as it ever was. With brown hair and eyes and a fair skin all shades of red, brown or yellow will be most becoming, although there will be no color at all that cannot be worn.

M. L. J.—The herb that you used in making the tea probably does not agree with you. An old-fashioned tonic and blood purifier is made by making a tea from a mixture of three roots, dandelion, burdock and yellowdock. Take a wineglassful three times each day.

Exercise will keep the figure young. M. J. S.—You would only injure your daughters hair if you attempt to change its color. Light blonde hair always changes to a medium shade of brown as children grow up.

Tomorrow—From a Reader

possible a dozen or more times, always keeping the spine straight. Follow this by bending first to the left, then to the right, a dozen or more times, keeping the body from the waist down as motionless as possible. This can be followed by what is sometimes called a trunk circling exercise, which is a combination of the two above, a swinging round and round of the whole upper half of the body.

This should be done every day. This special form of exercise will also make thin hips well shaped, so is of as much benefit to the thin woman as to the stout one. All exercise is a corrective. Needless to say this should be done without a corset and without any sort of restrictive clothing.

To achieve the ideal you should keep your figure so slender and well knit that you can dispense with corsets entirely. This exercise will help you to do so. It will also help strengthen the digestion, a thing that

Ka-di-ok is designed to relieve, stomach, liver and kidney trouble, poor blood, and a run-down, debilitated system. That it fulfills its purpose in the majority of cases is evidenced by the numerous testimonials which are daily received testifying to the way Ka-di-ok has helped them. Among those recently received is the following from Mrs. Paul Christison of 674 Mt. Vernon Avenue, Columbus, who says: "Until recently I suffered constantly from indigestion and stomach trouble. After eating the simplest sort of food or even taking a small drink of water or other liquid I would almost immediately have the most miserable pains in my stomach. I felt continually tired and sore and was very nervous. My complexion was very yellow; like I might have jaundice. I was advised to try Ka-di-ok and started taking a treatment a few weeks ago. The results have been most gratifying; since that time I have increased in weight several pounds and can eat anything with relish and without my stomach being affected in the least. I am now feeling and looking as well as I have been for a long time. I can truthfully say that Ka-di-ok has done me more good than I ever expected and am glad to give this testimonial for the good it may do others."

Ka-di-ok can be obtained at Sayre & Hemphill's Drug Store, Xenia.

Today's Talk

NEVER BE STUMPED!

There is hardly a day but some one of us arrives at some cross street in our lives and wonders which way to turn.

Usually we get very welcome advice at such a time. Advice costs nothing; therefore, it becomes a cheap and convenient thing to give away.

But the main thing is not to be stumped. Keep cool. Think. Then decide—and go ahead. You may have decided wrongly—but it won't be long before you will find that out. The great thing in life is not to hesitate too long over anything.

Edward Bok, in his wonderfully absorbing story of Cydus Curtis, in "The Man from Maine," tells of the time when Mr. Curtis stood to lose $800,000, had he given up his enterprise of The Saturday Evening Post. But Curtis called in his treasurer and had a talk. Just imagine the state of mind of that treasurer when he was told to spend another $200,000 so that there would be a cool million lost—if necessary! The point was that here was a master fighter who had determined to win. And of course he did.

Never be stumped!

If you seem to have run out of ideas one way, turn around and take up a new line and travel in some other direction. Success does not limit itself by direction.

When I go to my library and pick up a favorite book, I shall be sure to pick up one that was written by someone who refused to be stumped.

Perhaps it will be one by Mark Twain, or Carlyle, or the sick Stevenson.

Play with your plans. Keep looking ahead. Try to learn what the other fellow is thinking about. And whatever you do, seek to do it better than it has ever been done before. Take discouragement as a matter of course. But—never be stumped.

SPECIAL DRILL BY D. OF A. TEAM WILL BE GIVEN AT RINK

A new feature will be introduced on the program of the D. of A. and Jr. O. U. A. M. Spring Festival and Mardi Gras at the Rink Friday night, when the Daughters of America Degree Team from Springfield will stage a special drill as an added attraction.

This team has honors in several state and national competitive drills, and has been rehearsing for the special work to be given here. A large delegation is expected to accompany the team from Springfield and there will also be representatives from councils in neighboring cities and towns to witness the degree work.

Thursday night drew the usual large attendance due to the added interest in the Masquerade Dance. Many of the dancers appeared in costume and at the close of the evening, judges chose Miss Emma Free and Mrs. Elizabeth Hardy as the best masked couple and Miss Nora Bobbitt and Miss Inez Acton as the most comically dressed couples. Prizes were awarded the winners.

The vaudeville acts, which are free, are taking well with the nightly audiences and present a great variety of entertainment. The bill includes Herbert Biggers, in a sensational table and chair balancing act; the Aerial Davenport with a thrilling presentation of aerial work; the Aerial Butters, tight wire artists and also feats of strength, contortion and other interesting stunts coupled with plenty of good music.

A special matinee will be given Saturday afternoon at which the children from the Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home and the County Children's Home will be the guests of the sponsoring organization.

SLAYER PAYS FOR CRIME ON FRIDAY

Columbus, April 27.—Convicted of murdering Detective Frank Heuflein of Cincinnati, Noble "Red" Holt, also of Cincinnati, was electrocuted at Ohio penitentiary shortly after 1 o'clock this morning. Holt was sentenced last July and had received two days of execution.

Holt was calm as he entered the death chamber, and said nothing during his few moments there. But one application of electricity was necessary before he was pronounced dead. All hope for a third stay of execution was abandoned yesterday when the slayer's wife was refused an audience with Governor Donahay.

Mrs. Holt, although she was not admitted to the governor's office, talked with Executive Secretary Russell. Although Russell could hold out no hope for further postponing her husband's death, Mrs. Holt until late last night was confident "something would turn up" to save him.

In the death cell last night Holt, who was calm and composed, talked freely of his approaching death. "If I have to die, I'll go with a clear conscience," he said.

"They are bad risks," said one insurance man. They may be killed any time while fleeing from officers of the law. We have rejected many policies in the last few months, after learning the applicant was engaged in this highly hazardous occupation."

Even heavy drinkers of bootleg whiskey are out of luck. Though their liquid preferences make life insurance more desirable for their heirs insurance companies are not anxious for their business.

GIRL SACRIFICES LIFE FOR BROTHER

Uniontown, Pa., April 27.—Miss Hazel Perry, aged 13, yesterday sacrificed her life to save her three-year-old brother Herbert.

All leaped from the car except Herbert, too young to realize the impending danger. Glancing back, Hazel saw her brother still in the car. She ran to the machine, grabbed Herbert and threw him to safety just as the train struck the automobile, killing her instantly.

A. B. THOMAS, 77, DIES ON THURSDAY

Jamestown, April 27.—Albert Byron Thomas, 77, well-known and respected of Jamestown, died at his home here at 11:45 o'clock Thursday night. He had been in failing health for a year but death was immediately due to a recent stroke of paralysis.

Mr. Thomas was born near Jamestown, May 18 1845, the son of Jonah and Elizabeth Thomas. He was married to Miss Mary Jane Lewis, Oct. 24, 1869, and for many years they made their home on a farm between Jamestown and Bowersville, retiring and moving to Jamestown about 15 years ago.

Mr. Thomas is survived by his wife, and five children: Mrs. Alpha Weaver and Mrs. Milton Ireland, of Xenia; Harry Thomas of Dayton, Mrs. Ora Cline of Port William and Jasper Thomas of Jamestown. He also leaves five brothers, H. N. Thomas, of Bellefontaine; Charles and John S. Thomas of Wilmington and Bartley and Harvey of Jamestown.

Funeral services will be held at the late home Sunday afternoon at two o'clock, in charge of the Rev. N. C. Bangham and the Rev. Charles Moorhead, and burial will be made in Jamestown. Friends may call at the home Saturday evening between seven and nine o'clock.

W. M. S. MEETS ON MONDAY AFTERNOON

Cedarville, April 27.—The Woman's Missionary Society of the U. P. Church held its meeting Monday afternoon in the church parlors. The devotionals were led by Mrs. W. H. Smith, the various committees then gave their yearly reports. Mrs. White led the program which was conducted in a very interesting manner. A social hour was then enjoyed with the hostess, Mrs. Robert Townsley, Mrs. M. I. March and Mrs. I. C. Davis.

Give Shower
The members of the United Presbyterian Congregation gave a shower Saturday afternoon for Mrs. John Lee who has been janitress of the church for some time. It amounted to more than eleven dollars in money and a number of other supplies.

Mr. D. M. Stewart of Dayton, is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. J. O. Stewart. Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Turnbull and Mrs. William Spencer visited Mrs. Anna Morton, Monday in Springfield, where she is making her home with her son-in-law Mr. Aaron Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Ramsey have moved into the Stormont property made vacant by Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Stormont's removal to the home of Mrs. Stormont's father, T. V. Hill on North Main Street.

Mrs. John Ross spent the week end in Xenia with relatives. She attended the High School Class Play. The Elementary and High School Training Classes of the College spent Wednesday in South Charleston where they visited the schools.

To Give Cedar Day
Plans have been almost entirely completed for an old fashioned Cedar Day this year which will be held on the Campus June 6th. Each class will give a stunt and the gym class of 60 girls will give an "Aeroplane Drill". A baseball game will be the feature of the afternoon. The High Schools of the County are invited to attend and everyone is urged to bring a basket dinner and help make this day a success.

Class Gives Spread
The senior class of college held a "spread" Monday evening at the home of Earl Collins. Mr. and Mrs. Hayes Bates and family were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Harness of near Xenia. The Junior Class of the College was pleasantly entertained Tuesday evening at a "spread" at the home of Miss Thelma Deacon in Xenia.

Cedarville College Notes

The Rangers Club was royally entertained at the home of Professor and Mrs. Robinson, Friday evening. A Chinese dish, served with chopsticks was a unique feature of the evening. The baseball team played its first game of the season with Wittenberg, Wednesday afternoon. The final score was greatly in favor of Wittenberg due to the fact that our boys had had very little practice. We are hoping for better results when our team goes to Muskingum this week end.

Miss Marjorie Wright entertained the French club, Thursday evening. The new officers were installed and the members of first year French class were initiated. Light refreshments were served.

The annual Bible reading contest will be held Monday, April 30. Ten contestants will compete for the prizes of $7, $5 and $3. Special music and declamations are additional attractions.

The old and new cabinets of the Y. W. C. A. staged a mock wedding at the home of Lucille Johnson, Tuesday evening. Miss Marjorie Wright, the bride and Hazel Williams the groom were united in marriage by Rev. Florence Somers. After the impressive ceremony, a two course dinner was served to forty guests.

Miss Marie Meahl, chairman of program committee of the local Y. W. C. A. attended the Y. W. C. A. training Council at Dennison University at Granville.

Reverend C. F. Proudfoot gave an inspiring address to the boys Wednesday morning.

The Rangers will give their program Monday, May 7 in the Opera House.

Seniors enjoyed a spread at the home of Earl Collins, Monday evening.

INTERNATIONAL SPRINTS ON

Philadelphia, Pa., April 27.—The moot question of whether the shank of an Englishman can outstep that of a tank will be determined this afternoon. The occasion will be the annual relay games of the University of Pennsylvania on Franklin Field, where the two mile international run and the sprint medley relay representing Oxford University, England, versus the field of American colleges will come down to a definite decision just as it did in 1914 and again in 1920.

In those years it was a British chest that broke the tape, but according to the best local minds, this cannot happen again. The good word is that Oxford will be lucky to finish third among Syracuse, Georgetown, Kansas, Ohio State, Pennsylvania and others in the sprint medley and that it is believed Morgan, the Oxford dancet, hasn't the chance of a steam roller in the two mile run. Morgan, they say, is a perfectly good cross country man but lacks the speed to stop two miles with Walter Higgins, of Columbia; Helm, of Georgetown; McLane, of Pennsylvania; Bonsall of Cornell; Douglass of Yale and Booth of Johns Hopkins.

Oxford, of course, will be dangerous in the sprint medley. Any team that can muster a man like Bill Sievenson, ex Princetonian, to run a 1-4 in 49 seconds or less and Milligan to skip over the half mile distance as fast as 1:56 is bound to command respect, even though Renwick and Miller.

ACID IN STOMACH SOURS THE FOOD

Says Excess of Hydrochloric Acid is Cause of Indigestion

A well-known authority states that stomach trouble and indigestion are nearly always due to acidity—acid stomach—and not, as most folks believe, from a lack of digestive juices. He states that an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach retards digestion and starts food fermentation; then our meals sour like garbage in a can forming acid fuids and gases, which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon. We then get that heavy, lumpy feeling in the chest, we eructate sour food, belch gas or have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash or nausea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, while it is effervescent, and furthermore, to continue this for one week. While relief often follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salt is used by thousands of stomach sufferers, with excellent results.

FAIRWAYS BEING IMPROVED
Golf fans find joy in the announcement that the fairways on the golf course of the Xenia Country Club are being ironed out with a huge road roller.

J. E. Conley, of The Republican Asphalt Company, now paving North Detroit Street, has donated the use of the roller and the Club is paying for the operator's time and the fuel.

The links are in good shape to stand the roller, it is said, and the machine has rolled down all kinks in the first fairway until it is as smooth as possible. Golfers believe they can get considerably more distance to the drives through the roll alone, after all the fairways are smoothed out in this manner.

Inexpert golfers who have difficulty in keeping their ball out of the rough, will not get much solace from the ironing out process however. The roughs on each side of the fairway will still be just as rough or rougher and sliced shots will still be just as provocative of profanity.

The rolling of the fairways is expected to be a big improvement in the local course.

PLANS ARE APPROVED

Washington, April 26.—President Harding today approved plans of secretary of War Weeks and Chairman John Barton Payne of the American Red Cross to bring 500 Russian refugees, now moroored in the Philippines to the United States in an army transport.

The refugees, who were shipwrecked after sailing from Vladivostok, will be admitted to this country under the Russian immigration quota.

MINISTER IMPOSES FINE

Cincinnati, April 27.—After Thomas J. Smith had been adjudged guilty of assault and battery upon Rev. O. L. Seward, pastor of the Madisonville Methodist Episcopal church, Judge Samuel Bell called in the pastor to impose the fine. "One hundred dollars," said the pastor.

DANCER COLLAPSES

Youngstown, April 26.—After 66 hours of continuous dancing, Miss Bessie Edwards collapsed and became unconscious yesterday and was carried from floor to a hospital. Doctors say her condition is not serious; that she is suffering from nervous exhaustion. Her pulse is normal.

HENRY FORD'S LATEST

Lansing, Mich., April 27.—Henry Ford plans to build a factory on every small water power site he can obtain in Michigan and give winter employment, at city wages, to men from the farms. Senator Andrew B. Gaspie told the Michigan senate in urging passage of a water power bill.

HOUSEWIFE BECOMES NEW WOMAN

"All of our best doctors had given me up. I was unable to leave my bed for 16 weeks and was yellow as a pumpkin, besides the terrible stomach pains I suffered. Our druggist advised my husband to try Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and it has saved my life. I am a new woman now." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Sold by Sayre and Hemphill and druggists everywhere.

HARDING VICTORY IN COURT BATTLE BELIEVED ASSURED

over to the administration by the firm attitude taken by the President in his New York speech.

Senator Watson, Republican, Indiana, who conferred with Mr. Harding at the White House before leaving the capital for Pittsburgh, and Indianapolis said before his departure:

"The Republican senators who are opposed to dabbling in the League of Nations and who are loyal to the President are seeking some means of compromising their differences with the President in the world court. We are working on a compromise now and I am very hopeful. I am too good a Republican not to compromise to save our party from the danger of a division."

The compromise between Republican leaders and the President will be effected by reservations to the court proposal as originally made to Mr. Harding by Secretary Hughes and transmitted to the Senate by him.

Three methods of compromise were being considered today. They are:

1.—To eliminate Great Britain's six votes in the election of The Hague judges; this to be accomplished by agreement with the British government for it not to utilize six votes when the personnel of the court is selected. (This would require no change in the constitution of the league of nations, but in effect would be a gentlemen's agreement and would result in a situation similar to that prevailing at the Washington armament conference when each British dominion was represented at the council table but only one vote was cast for the entire empire.)

2.—To divorce the international peace court from league of nations

with a new method of electing members. This compromise would necessitate action by each of the thirty four members of the league and would be difficult of accomplishment, though advocates of the plan say it could be accomplished quickly once Great Britain approved. If opposition to the Harding proposal continues, this may be the only method acceptable to the Senate. To take the court entirely away from control of the league of nations would be acceptable to Senator Borah.

3.—The election of judges by the United States without participation in the councils at Geneva. This reservation in all probability will be adopted.

POPULAR FICTION ADDED TO SHELVES OF COUNTY LIBRARY

Movie fans were elated when they read advance notices that Richard Barthelmess, was to play the hero in "The Bright Shawl," his latest picture, and are receiving recompense for their elation through the films on Ohio screens during the past few weeks.

Those who did not take the opportunity to read Joseph Hergesheimer's quaint tale in a popular magazine, may do so through the medium of the shelves of the Greene County Library now, since the book is one of the many good ones offered in this month's list.

The sins of 1923, and the follies of society have become hackneyed material for writers, but this delicate subject has been handled in a masterful way by Arthur Train in "His Children's Children," another story that has found its way into book form and into the local library, after a popular series of months in the Cosmopolitan.

A guide to the best in the latest of current fiction, the following list of books just received at the County Library is given:

"Support," Ashmun; "Girl Next Door," Dodd; "His Children's Children," Train; "Bright Shawl," Hergesheimer; "Valley of Ten Thousand Smokes," Griggs; "Radio Boys with the Forest Rangers," Chapman; "Seven Ages of Woman," Mackenzie; "Trodden Gold," O'Brien; "Story of the Bible," Hurlbut; "Patty-Bride," Wells; "Life of Christ," Papine; "Gospel and the Plow," Higginbottom; "Being Respectable," Flandrau; "Room with a View," Foster; "Daughter of Adam," Harris; "Merry O," Hueston; "E. K. Means," Means; "More E. K. Means," Means; "Pest," Terhune; "Vision of Desire," Pedler; "Family," Williams; "O. Henry Memorial Price Stories for 1922," Williams; "Third Book of Short Plays," MacMillan; "Development of the American Short Story," Pattee; "Place of Books in the Life We Live," Stidger; "On," Belloc; "Crystal Age," Hudson; "From Tangier to Tripoli," Carpenter; "Man from Maine," Bok; "William Dean Howells," Cooke; "Speckled Bird," Cutler; "Ralph on the Army Train," Chapman; "Tom Slade with the Flying Corps," Fitzhugh; "Dick Hamilton's Football Team," Garis; "Boy Scouts on a Motor Boat," Ralphson; "Boy Scouts of the Air in Northern Wilds," Stuart; "Beautiful Bible Stories," Hurlbut; "Advance of the American Short Story," O'Brien.

CELEBRATES HER 78TH BIRTHDAY; IN GOOD HEALTH

Mrs. W. H. Carle of the Wilmington pike, celebrated her seventy-eighth birthday anniversary, Sunday April 22, the occasion being observed by a family dinner arranged by a company of Mrs. Carle's children at her home.

Those present at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Carle, Mr. and Mrs. Will Ary, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Carle, Xenia, and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Mussetter, of Caesar Creek. Two other children of Mr. and Mrs. Carle, Mr. Otis Carle of Springfield, and Mr. H. E. Carle, of Wilmington, were not present at the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Carle continue to enjoy good health, Mrs. Carle being able to do all her farm and housework, and is interested in current events. She reads many books and the daily newspapers.

The couple have lived on the Wilmington pike for twenty years.

CAESARCREEK

The annual Junior-Senior reception of Caesar Creek High School, was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. McKay on Wilmington pike, Friday evening April 20.

The beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. McKay was thrown open to the entertainment of the large group of pupils of both classes and their friends, the evening opening with a banquet.

Covers for members of the Senior class and their friends were laid at a long table, while the remainder of the guests were served at small tables, arranged throughout the rooms. Lighted tapers in crystal holders were placed on each table, the appointments being carried out in the Senior colors of silver and rose. The decorations of the rooms were in the same shades. A four course dinner was served the guests, the courses being interspersed with toasts and music. Games and an informal social time were enjoyed following the banquet.

WOMEN ARE WEARY OF WAR AND WILL FIGHT AGAINST IT

Atlanta, Ga., April 27.—If men are not allowed to fight out their differences in the fistfight altercation or with guns, why should nations be? If courts are ready to restrain the conduct of the various commonwealths, why not of the various countries?

These questions and others kindred will be asked by Mrs. Horace Mann Townner, of Iowa and Washington, D. C., chairman of the newly created department of international relations in the General Federation of Women's Clubs, at the biennial council to be held at Atlanta, Georgia, May 7-11, and 2,000,000 women who compose the organization are expected to have something to do with the answering.

Women are weary of war. The world is weary of war. And yet nobody does anything about it. The thing to do, in the opinion of the General Federation of Women's Clubs which has members in 18 foreign countries, as well as in every State in the Union, is to establish a world court.

The way to do this, the Federation believes, is to "so aid in forming an enlightened public opinion that the people of every country will demand that a reign of law shall be established among nations as it has been among men."

"There is no reason why the disputes of nations cannot be settled by impartial tribunals as the disputes of men are settled by courts of law," says Mrs. Townner who is the wife of former Congressman Townner, of Iowa, and now Governor of Porto Rico.

"In encouraging the study of world conditions the International Relations Department of the General Federation is urging club women to inform themselves as to the history and status of international relations and of the world conditions which have followed the war."

Women must know world conditions in order to interpret correctly those near home. The more accurate their understanding of international matters the more intelligently will they stand back of diplomatic decisions and help crystallize public sentiment.

"The General Federation is now prepared to furnish study programs and references lists and hopes soon to send out from Washington headquarters a traveling library on foreign relations."

Already more than 200 clubs are making international relations a study.

"After informing ourselves and working to influence public opinion we will strive to promote better understanding and establish friendly relations between the women of different countries, in 18 of which we now have club members."

WANTED

Two or three more men to help underwight (purchase for partial re-selling) the stock of the proposed Rotopress Company, of Xenia, Ohio. Immediate action necessary if we are to have any part in manufacturing one of the greatest printing presses ever built. This week—today and tomorrow, only, are left. We have not completed the necessary subscriptions to hold the business here, and as a last resort we take this method of getting into touch with YOU. If we fail, we are convinced that we shall have lost an enterprise which some day will be rated in the millions. WE HAVE RAISED OVER $65,000. WE NEED NEARLY $35,000 MORE.

WHAT IS THE ROTOPRESS?

The Rotopress has revolutionized printing as surely as the internal combustion engine has revolutionized transportation.

The Rotopress prints 20,000 impressions per hour (25,000 maximum) instead of 1,200 to 3,500.

It prints six colors at one operation—instead of one.

It prints from the paper roll—instead of one sheet at a time.

It is rotary—not reciprocal—in operation, therefore it is comparatively noiseless, vibrationless, and long lived.

It prints a better quality job.

It prints colors to a hair-line register on every one of millions of copies. Never a miss. Never a "white edge." It is the only perfect press of the kind, within our knowledge, in the world.

Colors never smear. Clean cut—beautifully sharp.

Sheets cut and delivered in a stack to perfect size.

No "slip-sheeting" necessary to dry. Colors are dry when they leave the press. Can be packed immediately.

(Note to any printer: If you think these things are impossible, come and see it done. EVERY printer who has seen it has been convinced.)

These are facts already demonstrated. The machine is fully developed. The first finished press is now installed in the Drury printing plant (The Rotograph Printing Co.) at Dayton. The only trouble experienced by this company has been to find work enough to keep the press busy. In three hours it does the work formerly requiring two to three days, for, remember, this production is not alone due to the speed of the machine itself, but also to the fact that no make-ready is required, and no time (10 to 24 hours at a time) for drying colors between runs, as is necessary for color work now.

WHY COME TO XENA?

For the first time in its history Xenia has a chance to get control of an industry which is not highly competitive, is thoroughly protected by patents—a monopoly, in fact—that is immensely profitable, that is developed to the point of production—patterns made, engineering work finished, the first press actually operating. There is absolutely no reasonable question that can not be answered satisfactorily—how the situation arose which caused the management to wish to move East, how we were able to interest the General Manager in Xenia, just what advantages Xenia has to offer in this particular instance that he has not found, or attempted to find, elsewhere.

The General Manager, Mr. E. E. Strawn, is committed to his company's plan to close with another proposition which does not appeal to him as the best possible plan for the development of the manufacturing end of the business, unless we succeed with the proposition made to him by Xenia men. Thus, a difference of business judgment has arisen. Xenia offers Mr.

Strawn and the progressive element of the old company the best way out of the problem. He can put it across if we put our end across. It creates a special opportunity for us that does not often offer itself. We have something he wants, namely a plant exactly suited to his needs, at a very low price, in a quiet community, in the center (of volume) of the printing industry. But the home situation makes it necessary for us to do something at once if he is to be able to carry through this plan which means so much to us and to him.

CAPITALIZATION

Total, $500,000 authorized, of which $410,000 is common and $90,000 preferred, distributed as follows:

$90,000 preferred and $100,000 common to be paid for the assets of the Iowa company, inventorying more than dollar for dollar, includes all patents, patterns, machinery, contracts, and other assets.

$15,000 common stock to be paid to The Miami Cereal Co. for its plant—easily having a replacement value of $75,000.

$100,000 to be issued to Xenia subscribers for new capital, common stock.

$195,000 common stock to remain in the treasury, not issued.

No promotion stock whatever will ever be issued. A modest commission, allowed by law and fixed by the Board of Directors, may be paid a salesman for selling such stock as it should desire to sell.

The need is urgent for a few more men to take enough stock to assure the plant for Xenia people. There is no reason why these men should not make a modest profit upon the stock they desire to resell immediately. We venture to predict that any stock held for two years will become so profitable that no holder will part with it.

EARNING POWER

Mr. Strawn has orders ready to close for more than ten machines as soon as manufacturing arrangements are completed. They can be put into the printers' hands within 6 months.

The presses cost about $3,500 to manufacture. The buyer pays $10,000 plus 10% royalty on the gross earnings of the machine. This means that the machines are not sold—they are leased, just as the United Shoe Machines are leased, and the vending machines, all of which constitute some of the most profitable property known.

Printing is expensive, and these royalties are based upon that expense. Even with the royalty, however, the printer who owns one of these machines can undersell his competitors and get the business, turning it out in enormous quantities.

Within six months, therefore, we shall be able to make from sales (or rather, lease contracts) at least $50,000 manufacturing profit and assure royalties aggregating, conservatively estimated, $50,000 more, per year. In another six months a repetition of this schedule will add another $100,000 to the profits of the company. The manufacturing profit, once made, is ended. The royalty profit is pyramided year after year, growing in volume rather than diminishing, and at no sales expense. Can any person who reads these words fail to get the vision of the enormous earning power ahead of this organization? Get any printer, large or small, who knows printing costs and volume possibilities to figure this royalty earning power for you. Can labels be printed in full colors by millions—not by thousands—and they cost around $4.75 per thousand. One Packing concern alone—Campbells—has a capacity of over a million cans per day. Add to this the volume, steadily increasing, of circulars, form letters, meat and butter and bread wrappers in color or not, as desired—the field is boundless, and the cost of printing is steadily mounting.

If this industry gets away from us, we predict that we will regret it to the last day of our lives. If it comes here and if you are not with us, you will never get another chance to come in. This industry is going to finance itself, and more than finance itself from the very start.

Let every man who can invest $100 to $35,000 come at once and investigate. See the press and help! This appeal will never appear again. It is NOW OR NEVER. Friday or Saturday—this week.

Call at The Xenia Grain Co., or The Miami Cereal Co. office. After office hours call 309-W.
